Day 03

Day 03: Motorbike drive, Kathmandu –Syabrubesi(1600 m) - 145 km / 7hrs

6 am wake-up call for breakfast, and we depart by 6.30 am for the Rasuwagadhi border. On the way to Trishuli bazaar, you will be stopping for a lunch break in a highway restaurant and will continue your journey further ahead. We will continue to Syabrubesi for a further 12 km till Timure for an overnight stay depending upon the border situation or the availability of a lodge.

The drive from Kathmandu to the border is splendid due to the wonderful views of the Himalayan ranges en route. Driving through local villages with stunning landscapes, picturesque views of greenery hilly regions and extreme flow of white water in the Trishuli river will be very peaceful.

Although the road condition from Kathmandu to Kalikasthan (100km) is good but after the border it is rough & off-road. Dhunche or Syabrubesi are alike base camps of Langtang for the trekkers to begin their trekking to the Langtang National Park region. Timure is the border town where all immigration & customs are settled. Both small towns are little developed with facilities of guesthouses, restaurants, banks, hospitals, schools etc. There is a certain level of security and checkpoints by the army & police on the way , after Dhunche till Timure. On reaching our hotel, we will check in and take a rest.

Note: one of our tour officers will collect the passport & visa from Embassy at 10.30 am and drive to Syabrubesi and will meet you all there and hand over the documents.

Day 10

Day 10: Lhasa to Gyantse(3950m) – 270 KM / 5 HRS

We will travel along Friendship Highway, passing Khamba La (4794 m), where there will be the opportunity to appreciate majestic views of Yamdrok Tso Lake, a deep blue body of water renowned for its unique beauty. The group will also see Nazin Kang Sang glacier standing proud at 7252m. Ahead to the west, we will come across another Karo La pass at 5045m. Following a 270 km drive, we will enter the town of Gyantse, a stunning example of a traditional Tibetan village filled with beautiful stone farmhouses. Gyantse Dzong and the Kumbum are the jewels of Gyantse. Gyantse Dzong is a historical fort built in the 14th century and overlooks Gyantse and the surrounding Nyang Chu Valley. The Kumbum rises 35km above the town, and is crowned by a golden dome. The grounds boast a Chorten (stupa), several chapels and a stunning collection of Tibetan Buddhist murals, which inspired the name of the complex. The word 'Kubum' means 100,000 images in Tibetan.

.Overnight at Hotel in Gyantse

Day 11

Day 11: Gyantse to Xegar / New Tingri (4300m)– 380km /7 hrs

After morning breakfast we set off for our exotic trip towards the Everest region. The drive passes through Shigatse town after following a 90 km distance. En route the group will stop at Shalu monastery; the structure embodies the Han, Tibetan and Indian styles of architecture. Following a brief look at Shalu, the journey continues towards Tingri. The drive to Xegar is defined by the picturesque landscape – we will pass the small towns of Lhatse and Gyatso La pass at 5220m. You will have the opportunity to see Natang Monastery (12 kms from Xigatse). In the evening we reach Xegar. As the landscape opens into vast plains, many monasteries and camps of nomadic herders become visible in the distance.
