On this tour you will drive around the island and discover Iceland's spectacular nature. Starting in the West, heading North, discovering the East, and spending the last days in the South, you will get to see a lot of this beautiful island. Let Iceland fascinate you! The travel period for this tour is all year but road conditions might be difficult Nov – Mar and we recommend to avoid this period.

Trip Highlights

Reykjavík–Borgarnes–Akureyri–Myvatn–Egilstadir–Höfn–Kirkjubæjarklaustur–Reykjavík

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01

Day 1: Arrival in Reykjavík

Accommodation in a centrally located hotel in Reykjavík city center.

Day 02

Day 2: Reykjavík – Borgarnes

Today you will visit the Thingvellir National Park on your way from Reykjavik to Borgarnes. Accommodation in a hotel in Borgarnes

Day 03

Day 3: Borgarnes – Akureyri

On your way to Akureyri you will be able to see the dwelling place of elves and trolls – the Glanni waterfall on the Norðurá River. Two nights accommodation in a hotel in Akureyri.

Day 04

Day 4: Akureyri

Enjoy your day at leisure in Akureyri.

Day 05

Day 5: Akureyri – Myvatn

The day will bring you to Myvatn, a lake in a beautiful area of active volcanism. There you can swim in Myvatn's Nature Baths, walk around the crater or glaze at the volcanic rock formations. On your way there you should plan a visit to Godafossen, one of the most spectacular waterfalls in Iceland. Accommodation in a hotel in Myvatn.

Day 06

Day 6: Myvatn- Egilstadir

Your journey continues to the east of Iceland. Egilsstaðir is the largest town in East Iceland and located on the banks of the river Lagarfljót. Accommodation in a hotel in Egilstadir.

Day 07

Day 7: Egilstadir – Höfn

Continue on Iceland's East and take the road South to Höfn í Hornafirði. Don't miss making a stop to see the spectacular Litlanesfoss, or to visit Seydisfjörður with its wooden houses from the 19th century. Accommodation in a hotel in Höfn í Hornafirði.

Day 08

Day 8: Höfn – Kirkjubæjarklaustur

Use your time today to visit Jökulsárlón, which is considered to be one of the natural wonders of Iceland. The glacier lagoon is situated on the edge of Vatnajökull National Park and offers an incredible view over its luminous blue icebergs. Accommodation in a hotel in Kirkjubæjarklaustur.

Day 09

Day 9: Kirkjubæjarklaustur – Reykjavík

Don't miss out on the opportunity of seeing the Kirkjugólf basalt columns. On your way back to Reykjavik it is recommended to visit Kerið, a volcanic crater lake. Or end your trip with a relaxing bath in Grindavíks Blue Lagoon. Accommodation in a hotel in Reykjavík city centre.

Local Tips

On your way along the east coast we do recommend a detour to Borgarfjörður eystri, a small village with 100 inhabitants, which is home to two kinds of lovely creatures that are in our hearts – more than 1000 elves and about 10000 pairs of puffins.
