Detailed Itinerary

Day 01

Day 1 : Medellin

9 Nights from AUD 15,638

Welcome to Medellín. When you arrive at the airport please complete immigration formalities and collect your luggage.

Then, remove costumes, exit the arrival hall, and then clear the customs. You will find your guide outside holding a sign with the name of your hotel. You will reach your hotel after a 45 minute transfer (under normal traffic conditions).

PM – Medellín – Walking tour through el Poblado with your guide. To get to know the city better, we invite you today to spend 3 hours walking around the neighborhood of “El Poblado”. El Poblado, the most modern area of the city, reflects the rapid growth that has occurred in recent years. You will end the tour by heading to a “tejo field”. It is a prehispanic game that involves hitting a metal “bocin” ring with a “tejo”. The distance to the ring is about 22mts. The game is made more exciting by the inclusion of gunpowder in small triangular packets, called “mechas”.

Travel Tips

Preparation for Medellín:

Make sure to pack comfortable clothing and suitable footwear for walking during the tour of El Poblado and the visit to the Tejo field.

Consider bringing sunscreen and insect repellent, especially if you plan to be outdoors during the walk.

Keep the provided contact number handy in case of flight delays or any issues with the transfer.

Exploring Medellín:

During the visit to Comuna 13, respect your guide's instructions and keep your belongings secure.

Always ask before taking photographs of local people and respect their privacy.

Traveling to Armenia and the Coffee Region:

Check Easyfly's baggage limits for the domestic flight from Medellín to Armenia and ensure you comply with weight restrictions.

Pack light, comfortable clothing for the warm climate of the Coffee Region, along with insect repellent and sunscreen.

Take advantage of the opportunity to taste local coffee and learn about the cultivation process during the visit to Pijao.

Cartagena:

In Getsemaní, be respectful to local residents and their property while exploring the neighbourhood.

During the walking tour of Cartagena's walled city, keep your valuables secure and pay attention to your guide's instructions to avoid getting lost.

Enjoy the sunset at Café del Mar, but be mindful of your belongings in crowded areas.

Santa Marta and the Sierra Nevada:

For the visit to the indigenous community of Katanzama, respect local customs and follow your guide's instructions for respectful cultural interaction.

During the hike to La Danta Waterfall, wear sturdy walking shoes and bring swimwear if you wish to swim at the waterfall.

Preparations for Departure:

Ensure you arrive at the airport with ample time for both domestic and international flights.

Check baggage requirements and make sure you comply with weight and size restrictions for both domestic and international flights.

These tips will help you make the most of your travel experience in Colombia and ensure a safe and hassle-free trip.

Weather Preparedness

Medellín:

September: Medellín experiences mild, spring-like weather with average temperatures ranging from 16°C to 28°C (61°F to 82°F). Expect occasional rainfall, so pack an umbrella or raincoat.

Armenia and the Coffee Region:

September: Similar to Medellín, Armenia and the Coffee Region have mild temperatures with averages between 17°C to 28°C (63°F to 82°F). Bring lightweight, breathable clothing, but also pack layers for cooler evenings.

Be prepared for short, afternoon showers, especially in the afternoons.

Cartagena:

September: Cartagena is hot and humid year-round, with temperatures ranging from 25°C to 31°C (77°F to 88°F). Dress in light, breathable clothing, and stay hydrated.

While September marks the end of the rainy season, there may still be occasional brief showers, so it's a good idea to carry a small umbrella or poncho.

Santa Marta and the Sierra Nevada:

September: Santa Marta typically has warm temperatures ranging from 24°C to 33°C (75°F to 91°F). Prepare for high humidity and strong sun exposure by wearing lightweight, sun-protective clothing and applying sunscreen regularly.

In the Sierra Nevada region, temperatures may vary depending on altitude. Dress in layers for cooler mountain temperatures during hikes.

General Tips:

Regardless of the destination, it's advisable to pack sunscreen with high SPF, sunglasses, a wide-brimmed hat, and insect repellent.

Keep hydrated by drinking plenty of water, especially in hot and humid climates.

Check weather forecasts regularly before departure and be prepared for sudden changes in weather conditions, especially in mountainous areas.

By following these weather preparedness tips, you can ensure a comfortable and enjoyable experience throughout your itinerary in Colombia.
