Day 02

Day 02: LIMA

Breakfast in hotel.

In the morning, a transfer takes you to the colonial and bohemian quarter of Barranco. There you visit a small shop of artisan roasting coffee where every day best-quality beans are selected to produce the best Peruvian organic coffee in town.

After this, we visit a secret garden to try a lucuma milkshake right underneath the tree that bears this fruit.

Then, we go to a traditional marketplace in the San Isidro district to try some local fruits and to learn about their influence in the international cuisine development.

The following stop is at the Embarcadero 41 Restaurant, one of the best ceviche spots located in the Miraflores district.

Here, you have the opportunity to prepare Pisco sour with a professional bartender. Furthermore, you discover the secrets for a perfect ceviche by preparing it along with the main chef.

Our last stop is at the Huaca Pucllana Restaurant for a gourmet Peruvian lunch.

Finally, after our five-hour tour, we transfer back to the hotel (private service, English-speaking guide).

The rest of the day is at leisure.

Overnight.

Day 04

Day 04: Cusco

Breakfast in hotel.

In the morning, you visit the San Pedro and Cascaparo markets. After that, you go to Deva Restaurant to take a demonstrative cooking class. Lunch is included (private service, English-speaking cook/guide).

In the afternoon, a cocktail tour is scheduled: in which we visit 3 different restaurants. The first one is “La Taberna Bar” of Pachapapa Restaurant. This visit includes an introduction to pisco, to its history and a description of the fermentation processes. Here, we will taste 3 classes of pisco and prepare a house cocktail (Cholo Sour, a sour based on coca). Then, we continue the tour visiting Kion Restaurant to prepare Ten'Cantalá, a cocktail based on pisco and kion. We finish the experience at the Calle del Medio Restaurant tasting a pisco punch and sharing a delicious appetizer (private service, English-speaking bartender/guide).
