Detailed Itinerary

Day 01

Day 01: Passau - Engelhartzell - Eferding - Wilhering - Linz

Departure from Passau through Nibelungen Street that takes you through the natural heart of one of the longest valleys of the Danube. Halfway you will see the legendary natural wonder of the Schlägener Donauschlinge, where the Danube makes a 180° turn. The journey continues through Eferding Becken and then through the short and forested Engtal known as “the Linz Gate” until reaching Linz, a city full of baroque and natural wonders.

Day 02

Day 02: Linz - Mauthausen - Grein

The day begins with a visit from Linz. In this city you can find many unexpected aspects of the Habsburg dynasty. The trip continues to one of the most beautiful baroque monasteries in Austria, the monastery of San Florian, if you wish, you can make a visit inside (not included). Then travel to Mauthausen and then continue your journey through the fertile alluvial plain of the Machland region to the golden city of Grein.

Day 05

Day 05: Vienna

In the morning, city tour. Vienna is the cultural meeting point on the traces of the Habsburgs and the baroque fascination of the Danube. No wonder, since Vienna was the imperial residence of the Habsburg House for centuries. During the visit of the city, you will admire the Opera, the Hofburg Palace, the Parliament, the Town Hall and visit the Schönbrunn Palace, the former summer residence of the Habsburgs. Spend your free afternoon at your leisure.
