Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Arrival in Rovaniemi

Upon arrival in Rovaniemi (own arrangements), check-in will take place at the Nova Skyland Hotel. Guests will stay in an Aurora Suite, designed for comfort and offering ideal viewing conditions for the night sky. A three-course dinner will be served at the hotel in the evening to mark the beginning of the stay.

Day 02: Husky Safari on Wheels

In the morning, a Husky Safari on Wheels will be experienced with Safartica. Travelling through the vibrant autumn landscape, guests will be guided by skilled mushers and pulled by a team of energetic huskies—a seasonal twist on the traditional sled ride. The remainder of the day will be free for leisure or optional activities.

Day 03: Aurora Borealis Picnic

Today is left at guests' disposal for personal exploration or rest. In the evening, the Aurora Borealis Picnic will take place. A peaceful evening will be spent outdoors, with warm drinks served while waiting for the Northern Lights to appear. If conditions are right, the natural spectacle will unfold above in the clear Arctic skies.

Day 04: Aurora Hunting Photo Tour

The day may be spent at leisure. In the evening, a Guided Aurora Hunting Photo Tour will be arranged by bus. A local expert will lead the way to optimal viewing locations outside the city, offering photography tips and capturing professional shots of participants beneath the aurora when possible. Hot drinks and local treats will be served.

Day 05: Departure

Check-out will take place after breakfast. Departure according to individual travel arrangements.

Local tip - Autumn in Rovaniemi is one of Finland's best-kept secrets. From late August to October, the forests are painted in brilliant reds, oranges and golds—referred to locally as Ruska. It's a peaceful, uncrowded season that offers excellent conditions for viewing the Northern Lights and enjoying nature's quiet transformation.
