Day 04: Rincón Chico / Bahía Bustamante.

Departure to Bahía Bustamante, a Patagonian estancia surrounded by 360 ° of pure nature. Close to the sea, within Patagonia Austral National Park, declared an Area of Importance for Bird Conservation, being one of the few places in the world, which concentrates such abundance, and diversity of birds and marine mammals.

Day 05: Bahía Bustamante.

During these days we will enjoy an activity, to have book time to relax or simply get to know the attractions. Boat ride: (3 /4 hours approx.) We cruise along seaweed meadows of Malaspina Cove, to watch penguins and birds such as petrels, terns, olrog's seagull and oystercatchers. The Peninsula: (4 hours approx.) Ideal to visit by walking, biking, 4x4 or horseback riding. Petrified Forest. (4/5 hours approx.) A trekking in this place is a living proof of how the landscape looked 60 million years ago. Penguin Island: (3 hours approx.) During times of low tide, this island is connected to the mainland allowing us to visit and watch the penguins and their nests from nearby. On the way, it is also usual to see maras, choiques and armadillos. Cape Aristizabal (4 5 horas approx.) A 4×4 drive to reach Cape Aristizabal, an important rockery cape, characterized by its imposing landscape, dominated by the sea, the stone beaches and fauna. De Piedra Canyon: (4-5 hours approx.) Trekking through the canyon where a river used to be, whose 15- meters- high walls (50 ft.) are composed of rocks originated from the Jurassic period of the Mesozoic era. Historical and Seaweeds Tour (1-2 hours approx.) Walk through the village to learn about the history, its founder and its inhabitants.
