Local tip - Discover the historic Three Brothers complex, located at 17, 19, and 21 Maza Pils Street in the heart of Old Town Riga. These three adjacent houses, dating from the late 15th to late 17th centuries, showcase distinct architectural styles from Gothic to Baroque. They represent different periods of residential construction in Riga. Today, the complex houses the Latvian Museum of Architecture, offering insights into the nation's architectural heritage.
