Day 02: Spreewald

Today you will learn more about the Spreewald. You can visit the open-air museum in Lehde (Freilandmuseum Lehde), here you will learn what life was like in the 19th century (not included). Then you can get into some outdoor activities, take a walk in the fresh air or go for a bike ride in the woods (Gurkenradweg trail). One of the best ways to discover the region is by navigating through its beautiful canals, for this you can rent a Kayak and enjoy the path at your own pace or go on a traditional boat trip (Punt boat) and admire the incredible landscape that the forest offers.

Day 04: Schmilka

Today you will discover the beautiful town of Schmilka. On the banks of the Elbe River and with the Saxon Switzerland National Park in the background, Schmilka is considered one of the most striking tourist destinations in the region. In this town you can go for walks, climb, have a massage or even visit its famous brewery and discover the techniques that have lasted hundreds of years. You could also take a short ferry ride from Schmilka to the town of Bad Schandau.

Breakfast

Day 05: Schmilka – „The Bastei“ and Neurathen Castle – Hohnstein – Schmil

In the morning a visit to “El Bastei” and the ruins of Neurathen Castle awaits you. The Bastei is a natural rock formation that rises 194 meters above sea level and has been a tourist attraction for over 200 years. The castle ruins of Neurathen, the largest rock castle in Saxon Switzerland, can be reached by crossing the Bastei Bridge. In the afternoon continue to Hohnstein, the city of the castle on the rock, which owes its name and origin to the castle of Hohen Stein, which is said to have existed before 1241. This is one of the most fantastic landscapes of valleys and rocks in the whole region. Return to Schmilka.
