Day 03: River rafting in untouched bliss!

Once a FARC stronghold, this beautiful part of the country is now a symbol of peace and pride. Explore the majestic Güejar River Canyon and enjoy a tour of the waterfalls. Marvel at the wonders of Güejar in Mesetas and San Juan de Arama.

This is a 3-day adventure where you will hear stories of tourism and peace working in harmony. Feel the adrenaline of rafting down a river that screams life! A river that represents peace and love in this region. Walk the trails and discover the impressive waterfalls in the foothills of the Serranía de La Macarena. This is a special place that will change you.

Early breakfast at the hotel.

Your driver will pick you up and take you to the small town of Mesetas. (Approximately 2 hours 40 minutes). You will be greeted by our hosts and have time to change into shorts and a light T-shirt.

You're going to get wet today - so be prepared!

Time for breakfast.

From your host's office, you will be taken to the rafting site "El Limón" for a technical briefing on rafting on the River Güejar.

From there, you will begin a wonderful journey of approximately 17 km along the river whose course will transport you to different waterfalls and rock formations that are a delight to the eye. On the tour, your guides will tell you a little about the fascinating history of this region as they guide you through the rapids of the river. Witness this river's treasures such as a huge rock formation in the shape of "The Titanic" and wait until you reach the Valley of the Fairies!

During the tour - you will have the chance to take amazing photos at some important points and you will have time to have a snack. At the end of the tour, you will arrive at an ecotourism farm to have your lunch. Here, you can take a shower if you wish. In the afternoon you will be brought back to Mesetas, have dinner and a rest in your hotel.
