Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Arrive Accra

Arrive at Accra airport. Meet, assisted and transferred to your hotel. Enjoy welcome dinner at your hotel.
Overnight: 3*/4* Hotel in Accra.

Meal Plan

Only Dinner

Day 02: Accra

Breakfast at the hotel.

After a brief orientation depart for a full day city tour of Accra. Your first stop is the Casket making shop where various designs of caskets are produced based on the African belief of life after death. Therefore, caskets are designed to reflect the earthly profession of the deceased with the belief that they can continue to practice this profession in the other world. Hence a bus driver maybe buried in a bus, a teacher in a book, a doctor in a syringe etc. Continue to visit the Presidential Museum of Ghana located inside the Christiansborg Castle and former office and residence of the Head of States and Presidents of Ghana. The Museums houses varied collection of the achievements of various Ghanaians who have excelled in many aspects of disciplines locally and internationally. Drive past the Independence Arch and the Black Star Square which is Ghana's National ceremonial grounds.

Lunch.

After lunch drive through Ga Mashie-Old Accra, this is a contrast of Victorian Dutch and post-colonial architecture. You will drive past James Fort built in 1673, Old Accra Square and the Post Office. Drive past Ussher Fort, one of three European forts in Accra which have survived the times. Ussher Fort was built by the Dutch in 1649 as Fort Crèvecœur. Fort Crèvecœur was part of the Dutch Gold Coast. The Anglo-Dutch Gold Coast Treaty (1867), which defined areas of influence on the Gold Coast and was transferred to the British in 1868. Interact with the local people at the Accra Harbour, view the light House built by the British to guide commercial ships into the Accra Harbour. Visit Deo Gratia Photo Studio established by JK BRUCE-VANDERPUIJE, a Ghanaian with Dutch ancestry.

After lunch visit Kwame Nkrumah Memorial Park and Mausoleum. This is a Memorial and Third burial grounds for the First Head of State and President of independent Ghana. The Mausoleum site was an Old Polo grounds for the European during the colonial period until 1957. This Mausoleum has been visited by many world dignitaries.

Your last stop for the day is the Arts and Crafts market to view a varied collection of Ghanaian handicraft souvenirs. This offers you opportunity to try out your bargaining skills on the local vendors and to "shop till you drop".

5pm: Return to your hotel. Overnight: 3*/4* Hotel in Accra

Breakfast and Lunch

Day 03: Accra-Kumasi

Breakfast and hotel check out.

Depart early morning for Kumasi in Ashanti Region; the Kingdom of Gold, History and Culture. Drive past several scenic villages and cocoa growing communities. (approx. 5hrs drive & 2 hrs of visits/touring).

Stop enroute to interact with people in a Ghanaian village and visit a Cocoa farm. Observe the harvesting, fermentation and Sun-drying process which makes Ghana's the premier choice for the worlds confectioners.

After lunch continue to Kumasi driving past many beautiful villages with fine examples of traditional housing. Note the change in vegetation from coastal shrub to forest as you drive northwards past several charming farming communities to Kumasi, the historic and cultural capital of the Ashanti people. Stop enroute at the outskirts of Kumasi to visit Ejisu Besease Shrine and Asante Traditional buildings and a UNESCO World Heritage Site (Cultural Division). This shrine was consulted by Yaa Asantewaa, the female Asante War General who led the Asantes to fight the British in 1900. Visit Ashanti Traditional Building and the Shrine at Ejisu Besease. Arrive and check into your hotel. Overnight: 3*/4*Hotel in Kumasi

Breakfast and Dinner

Day 04: Kumasi-Boabeng-Fiema-Mole National Park

Breakfast and hotel checkout. Depart Kumasi for Mole National Park in the northern part of Ghana. The ride takes you past rural Ashanti villages and food crop producing areas. Note the change in vegetation from forest to open grassland savannah. Stop enroute to visit the twin communities of Boabeng-Fiema. These two villages live together in harmony with a large monkey colony of Mona and Black and White Colobus monkeys. These apes are supposed to be representatives of the god of the river. Both the monkeys and their natural habitat (the tropical forest surrounding the villages) are therefore protected. You take a walk through the village. The small, green-brown Mona monkeys show themselves frequently. They literally live together with the population. The black and white Colobus monkeys are shy and keep themselves in the trees around the village. It is a beautiful sight how these elegant animals jump from tree to tree. Visit the Monkey cemetery where dead monkeys are buried like the graves marked as we do for humans.

Lunch enroute (on own account).

Continue Mole driving past Kintampo townships. You see the architecture gradually changing from rectangular houses to circular hoses with thatched roofing as you Dagomba and Gonja ethnic villages. This offer you opportunity to stop and interact with the local people. After arrival at the Mole National Park, the largest nature reserve in Ghana, you make an afternoon game drive off-road vehicle. It is a sloping area, with a somewhat steeper slope here and there. Just too wet to be a real savannah, but much drier than the tropical south coast of Ghana. Chances are that your wildlife such as elephants, baboons, lizards, warthogs and various types of antelope spot.

Dinner and Overnight: 4* Eco Lodge in Mole Park

Breakfast and Dinner

Day 06: Mognori Eco Village-Wechiau Hippo Sanctuary-Mognori Eco Village

Breakfast

Depart for Wechiau Hippo Sanctuary in the Upper West Region of Ghana.

The Wechiau Hippo Sanctuary, a community protected area is located at the extreme north-western corner of the Upper West Region of Ghana. It consists of a 40-kilometres stretch down the length of the Black Volta River which forms the region's western boundary with Burkina Faso. It is home to hippos, hedgehogs and many different types of lizards and reptiles. The sanctuary is an excellent place to see birds with over 200 species identified and new sights seen regularly. The sanctuary contains much more than just hippos. We are an excellent spot for bird watching, including woodland savannah, riverine and forest shore bird species.

Trek through the many hiking trails, searching for monitor lizards, bats, hedgehogs, pythons, and even chameleons. This relatively undisturbed Lobi area has distinct architectural designs, interesting marriage systems and funeral rites. Spend the night in our Hippo Hide Tree House and experience one of the best dawn choruses (bird song) in all of Africa.

Enjoy packed lunch from the hotel

For the most culturally oriented immerse yourselves in a cultural tour Lobi household tour.

- This offers you opportunity to visit Lobi compounds and learn about traditional practices and ways of life.
- Drink some Pito, the locally brewed alcoholic beverage with the headmen and hear stories or listen to xylophone music.
- Learn Lobi traditional belief system and Marriage processes

The best time to see hippos is in the dry seasons, usually November through June. June through August is a good time to see birds in all their colourful breeding plumage.

To get most out of your visit and experience all that the sanctuary has to offer, we recommend that your plans involve spending the night at one of our lodges. Morning and Evening River Cruises tend to give the best view of the hippos, birds and other wildlife. Afternoon can be spent trekking the trails, visiting local homes, and even relaxing in our Hippo Hide. It is high in the trees and an excellent spot for bird watching. Come, see and experience the wealth of wonders and activities Wechiau has to offer.

Board your bus/vehicle and continue on a scenic drive through rustic villages dotted sparsely in the Sahelian landscape back to Mole. Overnight: 4* Eco Lodge in Mole Park.

Day 07: Mognori Eco Village-Bolgatanga

Breakfast and hotel checkout.

After breakfast you leave Mole and drive on a scenic rural route to Bolgatanga in the Upper East Region. Enroute stop to visit the Larabanga Mosque. Built in the Sudanese architectural style in the village of Larabanga, Ghana. It is the oldest mosque in the country and one of the oldest in West Africa, and has been referred to as the "Mecca of West Africa". It has undergone restoration several times since it was founded in 1421. The World Monuments Fund (WMF) has contributed substantially to its restoration, and lists it as one of the 100 Most Endangered Sites. The restoration works have revived the knowledge of mud-plaster maintenance.

The mosque has an old Quran, believed by the locals to have been given as a gift from heaven in 1650 to Yidan Barimah Bramah, the Imam at the time, as a result of his prayers. The mosque, built with mud and reeds, has two tall towers in pyramidal shape, one for the mihrab which faces towards Mecca forming the facade on the east and the other as a minaret in the northeast corner. These are buttressed by twelve bulbous shaped structures, which are fitted with timber elements.

Continue to drive through several Dagomba and Gonja rustic villages to cross the Black and White Volta Rivers into Tamale, the commercial capital of the Dagomba people.

Lunch at a local restaurant.

Break the boredom of travel by making a detour to visit the local market. Walk through the alleys and interact with market women selling farm produce and manufactured items. Continue to Bolgatanga and check into your hotel.
