Day 02: Cancún - Tulum - Playa del Carmen

After breakfast, transfer to the archaeological site of Tulum for a guided tour.

Tulum which means “battlement” in Mayan, was one of the last Mayan cities to be built, in one of the most strategic areas and was an important maritime port of trade for the civilization. In fact, it is the only Mayan site located on the seashore. The site is known for its wall and “El Castillo”, the tallest building on the site. It is thought that the city was populated at the early 564 AD.

Afterwards, we will transfer to Playa del Carmen. This town is the heart of one of Mexico’s most important tourist areas, the Riviera Maya. In addition to its magnificent beaches, Playa del Carmen’s main attraction is its lively nightlife, you can explore this beautiful town walking around, discovering from beautiful beaches, local shops, art galleries, museums and renowned restaurants that make this cosmopolitan city an unforgettable place.

Day 03: Playa del Carmen - Chichén Itzá - Valladolid

Breakfast and check out from the hotel.

Today you will visit the most important capital of the Mayan World: Chichén Itzá. It is the most famous and visited Mayan site in the world. Chichén Itzá is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and its pyramid is one of the Seven Wonders of the Modern World. It was the political, religious, and cultural center of the Mayan Empire, as well as the capital of the region. You will visit the Pyramid of Kukulcán, the impressive “Feathered Serpent”, the largest ball court in Mesoamerica, and the Observatory, where the Mayans performed precise astronomical calculations.

After the guided tour, transfer to the Magical Town of Valladolid, where you will enjoy a walking panoramic tour. Valladolid is one of the oldest cities of the Yucatán Peninsula. You will discover the Church of San Servacio, the main plaza and park Francisco Cantón Rosado, the Parroquia de San Bernardino de Siena, and more.

Overnight stay in Valladolid.

Meal Plan

Breakfast

Day 04: Valladolid - Las Coloradas - Mérida

Today after the breakfast, you will discover the magnificent landscapes of the Yucatán east coast: Río Lagartos and Las Coloradas.

Las Coloradas are world-renowned pink lagoons. Their color is due to the presence of microorganisms that thrive in salt-saturated environments, producing this recognizable pink pigment. It is a protected, non-swimming area where sea salt crystallized, allowing you to admire the mirror-like effect of the sun's reflection. In Río Lagartos, a small fishing port, you will enjoy a boat ride through the reserve to admire the biodiversity of the ecosystem.

Finally, transfer to Mérida.

Overnight stay in Mérida.
