Visit: Dublin-Bangor-Dublin

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Welcome to Ireland's Capital

Your Irish journey begins with a shared transfer from Dublin Airport to your centrally located hotel. Waiting for you is a 2-Day Dublin Pass, giving access to the city's top attractions and hop-on hop-off transport. After check-in, wander along the River Liffey and feel Dublin's rhythm in its cobbled streets and warm smiles. As evening falls, join locals for a drink in a traditional pub — and enjoy the true meaning of “the craic.” Stay overnight in Dublin.

Today, explore Dublin's cultural heart at your own pace with your Dublin Pass. Discover the historic Dublin Castle, admire the grandeur of St Patrick's Cathedral, and visit Trinity College to see the famous Book of Kells. Later, unwind with a peaceful walk through St Stephen's Green, then let the evening carry you to Temple Bar for live music and a pint of Guinness to end the day. Overnight in Dublin.

Day 03: Heading to the North

Set out from Dublin this morning on your small-group adventure. You'll travel north through rolling countryside towards Bangor, stopping on route to admire the coastline and breathe in fresh sea air. This day is about transition and anticipation—once you arrive, enjoy the evening seaside stroll, a relaxed meal and the gentle pace of Bangor seaside town. Overnight in Bangor.

Day 04: It is all about Belfast!

Today the dramatic Causeway Coastal Route awaits. Explore Carrick Fergus Castle, the rope bridge at Carrick-a-Rede, and the world-famous Giant's Causeway, where nature and myth intertwine in hexagonal rock formations shaped by ancient volcanic forces. Return along the scenic Antrim coast, dotted with charming fishing villages. Overnight in Bangor.

Day 05: The city of Guinness

Your final day takes you through the picturesque Glens of Antrim and the rolling green hills of the North. Stop at historic sites or local cafés along the way before journeying south across the border back to Dublin. Spend the evening at leisure, perhaps revisiting your favourite pub or exploring the city by night. Overnight in Dublin.
