Day 02: It is time for the Louvre!

Meet the organised local guide and the other group members and head to the world famous Louvre museum, home of some of the world's best known works of art such as Da Vinci's Mona Lisa, the Venus de Milo and Michelangelo's Dying Slave. The next stop could be D'Orsay museum which is absolutely stunning and is home to many world famous masterpieces. Before you head to the hotel finish your day with a leisurely stroll across the river Seine and choose a local bar to enjoy a glass of wine in the most Parisien way possible.

Day 03: Explore the Palace of Versailles by day and Paris by night

Begin your day with a private meeting at your hotel with your guide, then set off on an exclusive half-day tour of the magnificent Palace of Versailles, a UNESCO World Heritage-listed masterpiece. Wander through its opulent interiors, admire the grandeur of the Hall of Mirrors, and stroll the exquisitely landscaped gardens, where fountains and sculptures create a regal atmosphere. Return to Paris for some indulgent leisure time on the world-famous Champs-Élysées, a playground for luxury shopping and Parisian style. As evening falls, savour a refined French dinner before being swept away by a dazzling cabaret, a quintessentially Parisian experience that captures the city's glamour, romance, and vibrant nightlife
