Overview

This new safari incorporates a visit to Samburu in the North, Nyahururu Falls the Central highlands and Rift Valley and the Masai Mara, to the south. With lodges located in excellent spots, game-viewing is consistently good, and landscape varied.

Samburu Reserve, located in the 'northern frontier' is home to the Samburu Special 5 - mammals found only north of the equator – the Gerenuk, Grevy's Zebra, Besia Oryx, reticulated Giraffe and the Somali Ostrich.

Nyahururu, located in the Central Highlands in Laikipia county, is an idyllic stop for nature enthusiasts, who enjoy a bit of gentle hiking with a visit to the falls and hippo pools, as well as a stop at the equator. The falls can be visited from above for those that do not want to hike down.

Lake Nakuru, famous for its prolific birdlife and home to the Rothschild giraffe and rhino is an ideal stop as you cross the country north to south.

Finally end your safari in the Masai Mara, home of the big 5 and host to the awesome spectacle known as The Great Migration, generally occurring between July and October.
