Day 02: TROMSO

Breakfast at the hotel.

Shared Tour Included

This morning we depart by coach for a 2-hour city sightseeing tour and perfect introduction to Tromso. Tromso enjoys a subarctic climate, its location corresponding to the northern coast of Alaska. Learn about the indigenous Sami people, their traditional culture and recent history. Following this, you will continue a tour around the island, passing Lake Prestatyn where the Meteorological Institute is situated. Travel across the bridge to the Arctic Cathedral (entrance included) for a visit to this masterpiece by Jan Inge Hovig. Built in 1965, the cathedral reflects north Norwegian nature, culture, and faith with a monumental stained-glass window. Afternoon at leisure.

Shared Tour Included.

ALTA MUSEUM APPROXIMATE DURATION: 15 min guided and free time to visit Experience the Northern Europe's largest and richest rock carving site, inscribed on the UNESCO's World Heritage List. Here you can walk on pathways arranged around the rock carving area while enjoying a fantastic view over the Alta Fjord. The 2000 to 6200 years old rock carvings show the life of hunters and fishermen. You will have a 15 min guided tour at the museum with some free time afterwards to walk around at your own pace.

Optional

HUSKY TOUR

APPROXIMATE DURATION: 3 hours

MEETING TIME: 12:00 in the hotel reception

INCLUDES: English guide, warm clothing and lunch

PRICE /PERSON: ADULT: On Request

REQUIRES PRE-BOOKING AND SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY.

You'll begin the experience with a delicious lunch — the perfect way to recharge before your exciting husky adventure begins. But this meal is much more than just nourishment: it's a sensory journey. Around the table, you'll taste, smell, feel the textures, and hear the stories behind each ingredient. Inspired by nature and local traditions, the seasonal menu reflects the essence of the Arctic, and we'll be delighted to share our knowledge and passion with you. After lunch, you'll receive clear and concise instructions on how to drive a dog sled. Then comes the moment you've been waiting for — meeting the stars of the day: our friendly and enthusiastic Alaskan huskies, eagerly waiting for you at the kennel. The air is filled with the excited barks of the dogs. They're ready, lined up in front of their sleds, waiting for the signal to go. You might feel a mix of excitement and anticipation yourself. The gate opens. The dogs leap forward and suddenly — silence. A silence broken only by the sound of paws and sled runners gliding over the snow. You're in control of the sled, and the dogs are guiding your path.
