Day 02: Siem Reap, temples and countryside

Today morning is dedicated to the discovery of Angkor masterpiece. To travel around the temples complex, no better meaning than a good local tuk-tuk. Let's explore Angkor Wat, easily the most famous and best-preserved of all temples within the Angkor complex. It is a massive three-tiered structure crowned by five lotus-like towers rising 65 meters from ground level. We also see the Ta Prohm Temple, unlike most other Angkor temples, has been left just as it was when rediscovered: a photogenic and atmospheric maze of trees growing out of temple ruins amid jungle surroundings, making it one of Angkor's most popular temples with visitors. Enjoy a nice lunch in local restaurant near Srah Srang.

In the afternoon we visit the ancient city of Angkor Thom, surrounded by an 8m high wall. Angkor Thom was the last capital of the Great Khmer Empire during the reign of Jayavarman VII. We continue to Bayon Temple in the exact center of the city. This 12th century masterpiece is a study in grandeur, its exterior gallery walls featuring extensive, superb bas-reliefs, particularly the East and South Galleries. The trip to Bakheng Temple will reward you with a spectacular sunset over the Angkor Archaeological Park and its surroundings.

Overnight in Siem Reap.

beautiful sceneries, it lasts about 6 hours during the high waters season, 9 hours when waters are low. Note: In wet season (August to November) the boat trip takes around 7-9 hours but in dry season (December to July) the trip could take around 10-12 hours and may be cancelled due to low water level.

We are back at the hotel in the afternoon. End of the day at leisure.

Day 07: Phnom Penh city tour

Today, let's discover the classics of Phnom Penh and go beyond to unveil some lesser known corners of the city. We start in the morning with the visit of the National Museum and the silver Pagoda / Royal Palace (please note that long pants and slits are required). We then head to the central market, explore its colorful stalls and taste several of the numerous street food dishes offered around. An insightful way to have lunch and to live a slice of pure local life. In the afternoon we go visit the Genocide Museum. A very interesting visit, that can be heartbreaking somehow, but that allows to better understand contemporary Cambodia and to keep us aware of how horrible and inhumane the past can be. To chill out and decompress, we suggest ending the day in style with a nice walk along the Mekong and a cocktail at Le Moon rooftop lounge with a scenic view over the River. Evening at leisure. Overnight in Phnom Penh.
