Day 02: Vientiane - City Tour

Breakfast at your hotel. Then we start to explore the major sights of the capital; including the oldest Wat Sisaket, the temple with thousands of miniature Buddha statues and the former royal temple of Wat Prakeo, which previously housed the famous Emerald Buddha Image. Our next stop is a visit to the COPE Center where you will learn about this remarkable educational center, a heartbreaking but compelling place that teaches us about Laos' Hidden War. Next, we will stop to take some pictures of the imposing Patuxay Monument, which is well known as Vientiane's own Arc de Triumph, before continuing to Lao's national precious heritage, the famous and sacred structure of That Luang Stupa. The area is famous for its many waterfalls. Stop at Tad Fane – the 120-m-high waterfall which splits into 2 powerful streams roaring over the edge of the cliff and plummeting into the pool below. Continue to the impressive Tad Yuang with its twin torrents falling about 40 meters and flowing into lush jungle. Day 04: Bolaven – Wat Phou – Don Khong

After an early breakfast, we head out towards Champasak to visit the fascinating pre-angkorian ruins of Wat Phou, one of Southeast Asia's most dramatic situation temples. Located at the foot of a hill, Wat

Phou reflects the Hindu culture of the pre-Buddhist Khmer society that constructed it. The summit, Phu Kao, immediately commands attention because of its shape, identified in ancient times with the linga, the phallic symbol of Shiva, from which originated its ancient name, Lingaparvata, and its reputation as a sacred hill. The permanent spring at the foot of the rocks is probably one of the main reasons the ancient rulers of the area established a sanctuary to Shiva at this spot. We continue our journey by road to Don Khong, the largest island in the South Mekong river region known as the 4000 islands, and one of the most scenic areas in Laos. Overnight in Don Khong

Set off after breakfast for a visit of the Morning Market where, together with the guide and local host lady, we pick all ingredients needed for our upcoming cooking class. Today, we will not take part in a regular tourist-oriented cooking class. The food is then brought to a local temple to offer for the monks' lunch, and as part of this ritual, your name will be asked for a blessing chant. Later, join in an open talk about Buddhism in Laos with monks. We will also have the opportunity to have further exchange with the community before returning to Luang Prabang for a light lunch with the left food you will have cooked. Afternoon: explore the city highlights including The National Museum, housed in the former Royal Palace, showcases many treasures of Laos' royal past and features the Prabang, the sacred Buddha image for which Luang Prabang was named.
