Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Arrival in Narsarsuaq

Flight from Copenhagen to Narsarsuaq, a gateway to South Greenland's dramatic landscapes of mountains, fjords, glaciers, and Viking ruins. After check-in and dinner, an optional hike to Signal Hill offers breathtaking views of the airport, Brattahlid, and the Ice Sheet. Dinner and accommodation at Hotel Narsarsuaq.

Day 02: Qaqortoq

A morning boat journey to Qaqortoq, South Greenland's largest town, arriving early in the afternoon. After check-in, a guided tour explores its key sights, including the 'Stone and Man' sculpture project, the town's famous fountain, and the educational centres. Dinner at leisure in town or at the hotel. Accommodation at Hotel Qaqortoq.

Day 03: Qaqortoq

A full day to explore Qaqortoq independently. The tourist office provides maps of the Stone and Man sculptures scattered throughout town. Highlights include the open fish and meat market, the town's museum housed in its oldest building (1804), and an optional 8 km hike in the surrounding hills. Alternatively, an excursion to the Uunartoq hot springs is available (not included).

Day 04: Hvalsey Church Ruin, Upernaviarsuk, Igaliku

Breakfast followed by a boat journey through Igaliku Fjord. The first stop is Hvalsey Church Ruin, Greenland's best-preserved Norse site. From here, the journey continues to Upernaviarsuk, an experimental agricultural station and nursery cultivating vegetables for local markets. After a short walk, the final leg of the journey leads to Igaliku, a scenic sheep farming village home to the remains of a large Norse bishopric. Time to explore the village and ruins before dinner. Dinner and accommodation at Igaliku Country Hotel.

Day 05: Igaliku

After breakfast, time to explore the village and its historic Norse ruins. The distinctive Igaliku Stone, a unique reddish sandstone used in local construction, is a highlight. A 17 km hike to a plateau offers a panoramic view of the Qooroq Icefjord. Dinner and accommodation at Igaliku Country Hotel.

Day 06: Nuuk

A morning hike along King's Road (4 km) leads to Tunulliarfik Fjord, where a boat transfer returns to Narsarsuaq. From here, a flight to Nuuk awaits. Upon arrival, a transfer to the hotel is arranged, with the rest of the day free for exploration. Dinner and accommodation at Hotel Hans Egede.

Day 07: Nuuk

A guided tour of Greenland's capital includes the Greenland National Museum, Katuaq Culture House, and the charming old town with the Hans Egede statue. An optional boat excursion to Qooqqut (not included) offers a chance to fish and enjoy a freshly prepared meal in the fjord system. Accommodation at Hotel Hans Egede.

Day 08: Ilulissat

Flight from Nuuk to Ilulissat, Greenland's third-largest town, whose name means "icebergs." A guided tour introduces modern life alongside traditional hunting practices, followed by a hike to the historic Sermermiut settlement at the mouth of the Icefjord. In the evening, an optional midnight sun boat tour among the icebergs is recommended (not included). Accommodation in Ilulissat.

Day 09: Eqi Glacier

A boat journey northward to the calving Eqi Glacier, with opportunities to spot seals and whales. The boat sails close to the glacier's towering face before arriving at Glacier Lodge Eqi. Accommodation is in simple yet cozy wooden cabins with no running water or sewerage, heated by a gas stove and lit by candlelight. Guided hikes explore the surrounding wilderness. Dinner and accommodation at Glacier Lodge Eqi.

Day 10: Eqi Glacier

A 4-5 hour guided hike to the glacier's moraine offers a stunning vantage point over the ice front. The hike involves some river crossings and mild climbs but rewards with breathtaking views. Dinner and accommodation at Glacier Lodge Eqi.

Day 11: Ilulissat

A boat returns to Ilulissat in the afternoon, with time to enjoy the passing landscapes and look for whales, including fin whales and humpbacks. Accommodation in Ilulissat.

Day 12: Ilulissat

A free day to explore the Ilulissat area. Several hiking routes are available, and optional excursions include a whale safari in Disko Bay or a helicopter flight over Kangia Glacier (not included). Accommodation in Ilulissat.

Day 13: Ilimanaq

A boat journey to Ilimanaq passes the Icefjord's mouth, arriving in the early afternoon. After check-in at Ilimanaq Lodge, a guided introduction to the village follows. The evening features a gourmet three-course dinner in a restored historic building from 1751. Accommodation at Ilimanaq Lodge.

Day 14: Ilulissat

Breakfast at the lodge before a morning at leisure. Options include self-guided hikes, relaxing in the village, or joining an optional excursion. Lunch is provided as a takeaway sandwich. The return boat to Ilulissat departs in the afternoon. Additional excursions, including glacier hiking, can be arranged. Dinner and accommodation in Ilulissat.

Day 15: Departure

Flight from Ilulissat to Copenhagen via Nuuk, marking the end of an unforgettable journey through Greenland.
