Day 04: Turkmenbashi (city tour)

After breakfast, a sightseeing tour of Turkmenbashi. Formerly known as Krasnovodsk, Turkmenbashi is a city located in western Turkmenistan on the Caspian Sea. Founded in 1869, it is a relatively young city that serves as an important transportation hub due to its seaport and railway connections. While Turkmenbashi may not be filled with ancient historical sites, it offers a unique blend of natural beauty and modern development, along with easy access to some fascinating destinations.

During your visit, you will explore Kenar Bazaar, which features a variety of foods and clothing, and spend time at the Caspian Sea coast. Although the city itself is not large, it has a distinctive ambiance that sets it apart from any other place in the world.

Dinner at the restaurant.

Day 05: Turkmenbashi – Ashgabat – Darvaza (flight/ca.276 km, 4h)

Morning flight from Turkmenbashi to Ashgabat at 08:40.

In the morning, you will visit Horse Stable to see the national pride of the Turkmen people—Ahalteke horses, the nicest horses in the world. 5000 years ago, Turkmen began breeding Ahalteke horses. The World's unique breed was never mixed with other breeds. Illustrious Emperors like Alexander the Great and Darius I desired to own Ahalteke horses. There are over 35 beautiful horses on the farm. Per superstition, every sick person who touches an Ahalteke horse will get well soon.

Afternoon drive to Darvaza burning Gas Crater (276km, 4h) which is one of the top international tourist destinations. Stopping in the village of Yerbent and observing the village life adds a special excitement to this trip. The area is rich in natural gas. Burning for more than 50 years, Darvaza Gas Crater shines like a pearl in the middle of the Karakum desert. Besides Darvaza Gas Crater, you will also see water and mud craters. One of the most vivid and addictive features of this trip is the fresh air of the desert and experiencing the nomadic life in person. At night, while the light of the Gas Crater hits the sky, you will camp in the Turkmen national yurt or private tents and barbecue for dinner. This unique landscape in the world will fascinate you and you will want to come again.

BBQ dinner at the yurt camp.
