Day 01: Arrival in Saigon (Ho Chi Minh)

Day 02: Saigon City tour

With the services of a knowledgeable English-speaking local guide, spend the day touring Ho Chi Minh City's most famous attractions, kicking off with the Reunification Palace, the home and workplace of the President of South Vietnam during the Vietnam War and now a museum and venue for official receptions. You can visit the War Room from where the South Vietnamese forces were controlled, and most poignantly, the room where the North Vietnamese army took official control in 1975. Nearby stands the 19th century Notre Dame Cathedral, a major centre of Catholicism in modern Vietnam and one of the city's major landmarks. Next to the cathedral stands the Saigon Central Post Office, a classic French colonial structure with huge ceilings that still functions as a post office today.

Finally head to Ben Thanh Market, packed to the rafters with everything from fruits to nuts, tourist kitsch to true bargains - it's the perfect place to pick up souvenirs for friends and family back home. In the evening take a walking tour of the city's popular Pho Tay ("Streets of Foreigners") area where you can sample the unique flavors of south Vietnamese gastronomy including Hu Tieu - pork noodle soup, and Banh Xeo - savory fried pancakes. End the day with a cold beverage watching the world go by from one of the many streetside cafes and bars.

Day 03: Saigon ??? Mekong Delta - Saigon

This morning, travel to the Mekong Delta for a day exploring the many waterways and local cottage industries. Travel by road to Ben Tre, where you'll embark on a river boat trip, making a stop at a brickwork factory to see how bricks are traditionally made from molded clay. Next, visit a coconut processing workshop located along the canal and a family workshop run by women making sleep mats. There'll be a chance to enjoy fruit and tea, and chat with the locals.

Leaving the canals behind, take a motor cart (xe lôi) ride on shady roads, passing by rice fields and vegetable plains where farmers tend their crops. Enjoy a home-cooked lunch with a local family in Ben Tre before returning to the waters in a rowboat, leisurely cruising along palm-fringed creeks. Later return to the pier where a car will be waiting to return you to Ho Chi Minh City.
