Day 01: Welcome to Costa Rica

Between Jungle, Beaches and Volcanos #4632

From AU$5,470.00 pp

Welcome to Costa Rica: meet your English-speaking representative and private transfer to your hotel. Your trip begins with a first night in San José. Located at an altitude of 1,200 meters, the capital and its suburbs are home to half of the country's population. The city is located in the central valley, surrounded to the north by various volcanoes, such as Poas, Irazú and Turrialba, and to the south by the Talamanca mountain range, the highest mountain range in southern Central America.

Day 02: Trip to Tortuguero , our "Little Amazon" (2?? hours by road and + 1 hour by boat)

Meet the local Spanish-English speaking driver at your hotel reception and travel to the Tortuguero pier in a semi shared transfer (only travellers staying at the same lodge as you in Tortuguero).

Arrive in the town of Guápiles and have breakfast at a local restaurant before taking a boat to Tortuguero, winding through the canals in the heart of the rainforest.

Arrive at the lodge for lunch.

Tortuguero is Costa Rica's little Amazon, its dense rainforest is home to incredible flora and fauna, ensuring a complete change of scenery. The Tortuguero site is part of the Ramsar Convention's wetland protection program, with a particular focus on waterbird habitats.

In the afternoon, you will set off to explore the small Caribbean village of Tortuguero.

The late afternoon is free to enjoy the facilities and stroll around the area.

OPTIONAL : Travel to Tortuguero by air !

Treat yourself to a scheduled domestic flight and see the beauty of Costa Rica from a different angle. In addition to magnificent scenery as you fly over the dense tropical jungle (flight time 30-40 minutes), you'll avoid having to wake up early the day after your arrival and save yourself a long road trip!

Supplement: from AUD 421/person and AUD 281/child under 12 years old.

OPTIONAL: night excursion to watch green turtles lay their eggs!

(BETWEEN JULY AND OCTOBER – BOOK ON SITE)

Between July and October, numerous green turtles come to lay their eggs on the beaches of Tortuguero National Park. This is an exceptional spectacle that is not to be missed! For the well-being of the turtles, this activity is highly regulated by the authorities and can only be done with a specialized guide. The activity takes place at night and cannot be booked in advance. Please contact the reception desk at your lodge upon arrival to make a reservation.

Supplement: approximately AUD 117/person (the exact amount will be confirmed by the lodge)

Day 05: Discover Puerto Viejo

This morning, visit the Jaguar Rescue Centre animal sanctuary with a local English-speaking guide. During this visit, you will meet some of the center's temporary and permanent residents and learn about their individual stories. You will also learn about the challenges and issues surrounding wildlife protection in Costa Rica. As the center receives no government funding, the entrance fees charged for visits and the proceeds from the small souvenir shop are its only sources of income.

For the rest of the day, you could head to the Gandoca-Manzanillo Wildlife Refuge to enjoy the beautiful beaches of the coast, where Playa Chiquita, Playa Cocles and Playa Punta Uva await you. On foot, by renting a bike or by tuk-tuk, which is the most common transport in the area, take a relaxing break between sunbathing sessions in one of the local restaurants and treat yourself to a cocktail or a refreshing drink.

OPTIONAL: Guided tour of Cahuita National Park.

In addition to being an example of cooperation between the local community and government authorities (the management of the park is shared between these two entities), Cahuita National Park is a joyful biodiversity! After passing through the small town of Cahuita, we'll take a path along the Caribbean Sea through the jungle, which will take us to Playa Blanca, a beautiful beach with white sand and crystal clear water where you can relax. On the way to the beach, keep your eyes wide open and look up, you can observe sloths, capuchins, iguanas, raccoons, and snakes! Tropical fruit snacks on the beach, and Caribbean lunch in a restaurant in Cahuita.

Supplement:

Self-guided tour: Voluntary donation at the entrance of the park (we recommend minimum AUD 12 per person)

Private Tour (ENG/ES): AUD 234 per person / AUD 187 child from 3 to 10 years old

OPTIONAL: Day to discover the traditions of the Bribri indigenous community

Drive to the Bribri Indigenous Reserve, in the Talamanca Mountains. Arrive at the Bribri cultural center, 15 minutes from the center of the eponymous village, where you will meet a Bribri healer, who will take you to the forest to discover medicinal plants, and ancestral techniques for the manufacture of natural fibers and dyes used for the manufacture of clothes, jewelry and crafts.

You will then get to know one of the most important plants for Bribri cultivation, and in general for pre-Columbian crops throughout the continent: cocoa. The healer will explain in detail the process of processing cocoa beans: cultivation, harvesting, fermentation, drying, grinding and all its uses in Bribri cultivation. After making your mouth water, a tasting of the finished product will of course be on the program! To whet your appetite for lunch, you can try your hand at traditional archery, then it's time to sit down to eat. You will enjoy a delicious lunch prepared over a wood fire and served in a banana leaf. After lunch, we'll take a digestive walk through the jungle, to a waterfall with refreshing waters where you can take a swim. Note: The order and content are subject to change depending on weather conditions.

Supplement (ENG/ES): AUD 234 per adult or child (duration approx. 4h30)

It is also possible to spend a night in a Bribri community to extend the experience and deepen your discovery of the Bribri culture. Contact us!

OPTIONAL: Caribbean cooking class The cultural mix between the indigenous peoples of Talamanca and the Jamaican community who emigrated to Costa Rica at the beginning of the 20th century for the construction of the railway, gave the southern Caribbean coast of Costa Rica colors and especially flavors that could not be found anywhere else in the country! And what flavors!! Women from the community will teach you how to prepare the best Caribbean dishes, as they have been prepared on site for generations, using local ingredients: coconut milk, thyme, chili, ginger, etc. Once finished in the kitchen, you will of course be able to taste the result of your hard work! Enjoy your meal! Available for lunch or dinner.

Supplement (ENG/ES): AUD 199 per adult or child (minimum age to participate in the activity: 6 years old).

Day 07: Continuation to Arenal Volcano (1h15 by road)

Today your journey takes you to the north of the country to reach La Fortuna, a city located at the foot of the Arenal volcano.

Costa Rica is known to be home to about 116 volcanoes among them and surely one of the most impressive, the Arenal Volcano. The latter, despite its age of 7,500 years, is rather well preserved since it is the youngest volcano in the country. Culminating at 1,630 metres, this stratovolcano has not been active since the end of 2010 but it is a delight for photographers (when it is uncovered) as well as "amateurs" or "aficionados" of thermal waters.

OPTIONAL: Relaxing evening and dinner in the thermal waters of Baldi, the most family-friendly! Baldi Hot Springs Hotel & Spa is a family-friendly resort offering 25 pure mineralized hot or temperate pools (4 of which are at room temperature), a large natural sauna and spa for Jacuzzi-style use, three minibars, two gourmet restaurants, 3.5 kilometers of paths and 3.4 hectares of picturesque tropical gardens. The entire complex enjoys a privileged location with the majestic Arenal Volcano as a backdrop.

Supplement: Access between 09:00 and 22:00 and buffet dinner (or lunch): AUD 152 per person and AUD 105 per child under 11 years old.

The thermal baths of Ecotermales, the most intimate! Built in total harmony with nature, there is a peaceful and serene atmosphere in the Ecotermales thermal baths. In the very heart of the rainforest, the various hot springs have been designed with the environment in mind. You will have the pleasure of relaxing with a breathtaking view of the Arenal Volcano while listening to the singing of the birds and the sound of the wind in the trees. To guarantee the serenity of the place, the capacity of the establishment is limited to 100 people per day: it is important to book in advance!

Supplement: Access between 10:00 and 16:00 or between 17:00 and 22:00 and buffet dinner: AUD 199 per person and AUD 129 per child from 5 to 11 years old.

You will cross 15 bridges on different heights measuring from 5 to 100 meters.

OPTIONAL: Arenal National Park Lava Flow Tour (Arenal Trail 1968)! About 6km of trails at the foot of the Arenal Volcano will take you through the dense rainforest. You will be able to observe how the variations in the acidity of the soil due to volcanic activity, cause sudden changes in vegetation, and shape the landscape in a surprising way! Halfway through, you will come to the ancient lava flows, which cut the forest in two. From the dried lava mounds, you'll have a breathtaking view of the volcano on one side, and Lake Arenal on the other. Supplement:

Private Guided Tour (ENG/ES): AUD 374 per person and AUD 199 per child under 12 years old.

OPTIONAL: Meet Don Hubert on his organic farm! Local Spanish-speaking guide only – English speaking on request, cannot be guaranteed.

Don Hubert is a former traditional farmer, converted to organic farming, then, through the twists and turns of life, to ecotourism. His greatest pleasure is now to introduce visitors to his little piece of paradise as he calls it, understand: his farm and his plantations! Whether you spend a few hours or a full day at Don Hubert's house, your visit will undoubtedly be one of the highlights of your trip!

Visit to the fruit and vegetable plantations, the medicinal plant garden, and the sugar cane mill! AUD 152 per person and AUD 105 per child from 4 to 10 years old. LUNCH INCLUDED.

Visit the plantations of tropical fruits and vegetables like pineapple, bananas, cassava, and others so exotic that you will definitely discover them for the first time! You will then take a tour of the medicinal herb garden. Have you ever wondered what stevia, quinine, cinnamon or turmeric look like in their raw state? You will have the answer here! Then we will pass by the sugar cane mill where you will taste.

Visit of the cocoa plantation and workshop! AUD 129 per person and AUD 94 per child from 4 to 10 years old Visit to the farm's cocoa plantation. Don Hubert will explain the smallest details of the process of transforming the cocoa bean into chocolate. You will then have the opportunity to make a chocolate bite yourself using pure cocoa and the farm's aromatic herbs (mint, cinnamon, etc.).

Day 10: Day on the Pacific Coast

You will have the opportunity to do many activities (not included), or enjoy the large sandy beach of Playa Samara, or Playa Carrillo, a nearby beach lined with palm trees. You can also explore the south of the Nicoya Peninsula, such as the small surfing villages of Nosara or Santa Teresa.

OPTIONAL: Catamaran ride at sunset!

Treat yourself to a moment of relaxation aboard a catamaran that will take you to the calm waters of the Pacific

Ocean at the end of the day. The boat will sail off a small island, around which you can snorkel and watch the underwater hustle and bustle before the sun goes down. Or you can simply stay on deck, and enjoy the calm of the ocean, the background music, and the colors of the sunset while sipping a fruit juice or a cold beer.

Duration about 4 hours. Starts around 2:15 pm. Minimum 6 participants – Maximum 60 participants

Supplement:

Private guided tour (ES/ENG): AUD 3275 from 1 to 25 people.

OPTIONAL: Boat tour off Samara! Hop aboard a boat to explore the Pacific Ocean, off the coast of the small village of Samara. After watching dolphins, sea turtles, rays, seabirds, and maybe even humpback whales (between August and November) from the boat, you can explore the underwater life on your own with a mask and snorkel. This tour is suitable for all ages. Tour at 8:15 am. Duration of the activity 3h30 Capacity: Minimum 4 people, maximum 60 people.

SUPPLEMENT:

Private guided tour (ES/ENG): AUD 2339 from 1 to 25 people.

OPTIONAL: Kayak or Stand-up Paddle and snorkelling in Isla Chora!

Just off the coast of Samara is Chora Island, a haven of white sand and turquoise water. On this tour, we'll kayak or stand-up paddleboard to Chora Island and then Samara Beach, where we'll dive into the water, snorkel and discover Costa Rica's rich marine life. If you wish, you can relax and soak up the sun on the island's deserted beach while enjoying a selection of drinks and fresh fruit. Accessible to all audiences - your guide gives you a brief lesson in safety and the use of kayaks and SUP boards on the beach before you set off.

Tour at low tide. Duration of the activity 3h00

Capacity: Kayak from 4 to 75 years old Minimum 2 people, maximum 40 people.

SUP Paddle from 10 to 60 years old Minimum 2 people, maximum 20 people.

SUPPLEMENT:

OPTIONAL: Hike in the Werner Sauter Biological Reserve!

An experienced local guide will take you on the trails of the Werner Sauter Biological Reserve, one of the only private reserves in the region, located in Samara.

The reserve consists of tropical dry forest and is one of the most vulnerable and rare biomes in Central America. This type of forest is undoubtedly home to one of the most interesting and complex ecosystems in the region; The natural scarcity of water has allowed wildlife to evolve and thrive in an environment with fewer nutrients than other rainforests, while retaining the ability to endure six months of intense tropical rain.

Tour 6:30 am and 2:30 pm. Duration of the activity 3h00

Capacity: Minimum 2 people, maximum 20 people.

Guided Bundled Tour (ES/ENG): Rates available on request.

OPTIONAL: Kayak or stand-up paddle in the mangrove! Explore the waters and mangroves of the Samara Beach area on this guided kayak or stand-up paddle boarding. Paddle along the Ora River, through the mangrove tunnels, towards Camaronal Beach. Be on the lookout for birds along the way. At the end of the activity, you'll enjoy refreshments while listening to your local guide tell you more about the area's ecosystem. Duration of the activity 3h00 Capacity: Minimum 4 people, maximum 40 people.

SUPPLEMENT: Guided Bundled Tour (ES/ENG): Rates available on request.

OPTIONAL: Night excursion to observe the turtles laying their eggs! (Between 01 June and 30 January)

An experienced local guide will accompany you to observe this extraordinary natural phenomenon in complete safety and respect. He will explain how to observe and approach the turtles without disturbing them, and explain the details of the life and reproductive cycle of sea turtles. September and October are the best months for turtles to lay eggs, but you can see them between June and the end of January.

Tour at medium tide. Duration of the activity 4h00

Capacity: Minimum 4 people, maximum 40 people.

SUPPLEMENT: Guided Combined Tour (ES/ENG): Rates available on request.

OPTIONAL: Horseback riding! Treat yourself to a horseback ride, between the ocean and the mountains, along rivers, and certainly accompanied by some wildlife along the way. No experience is necessary.

Supplements: Duration 2h30 Guided Bundled Tour (ES/ENG): Rates available on request.

OPTIONAL: Visit to a Scarlet Macaw Refuge and Breeding Center! Just south of Playa Carrillo is Punta Islita, home to the Macaw Recovery Network (formerly The Ara Project), a conservation organization dedicated to the survival of Costa Rican scarlet macaws. Previously extinct in this area of Guanacaste, the scarlet macaw is now back! The Punta Islita site is home to a sanctuary and breeding center, where rescued or injured birds, which cannot be released, are kept for breeding purposes. Their young are then released into the wild. More than 50 scarlet macaws were released, creating the now famous wild scarlet macaw reserve, a must-see during your visit to the Nicoya Peninsula. Duration about 3 hours. Activity at 3:00 pm. Capacity: Minimum 4 people, maximum 24 people.

Day 14: Manuel Antonio National Park

Day to discover the Manuel Antonio region (entrance to the park for a self-guided visit, without guide, included)! Lazing on the beach or by the pool, walking in the national park, or heading south to the Uvita region, to explore the forest in search of waterfalls or climb aboard a boat to observe the marine fauna!

OPTIONAL: Boat trip to observe marine wildlife in the Marino Ballena National Park

Marino Ballena Park is home to one of Costa Rica's most diverse marine ecosystems and is one of the best places in the world for whale watching between July and late October, when humpback whales from the Southern Hemisphere migrate from Antarctica to Marino Ballena National Park in Costa Rica to breed and raise their calves. From December to February, humpback whales from the northern hemisphere come to Costa Rica.

The boat departs from Punta Uvita beach after a safety briefing from the local guide. During the tour, you'll explore Marino Ballena National Park in search of the majestic humpback whales (depending on the season) and other marine life such as Pacific spotted dolphins, hog-nose dolphins, seabirds, and sea turtles, which can be seen year-round in the park. During the dry season (December to May), we'll make a snorkeling stop around the "Whale Rock", a small island so called because of the noise the wind makes when entering the caves and cavities of the island. During the rainy season (June to November), the visibility does not allow for snorkeling, but you can still enjoy a dip in the ocean. You will pass by the incredible natural formation of the whale's tail and the beach of Ventanas to see the wonderful sea caves sculpted by the ocean.

Note: Motion sickness medication is recommended for this tour.

Supplement:

Guided tour (ENG/ES) combined: AUD 246 per person (between 3 and 10 years old – AUD 164 per person).

OPTIONAL: Discover the different waterfalls in the region!

Nauyaca Falls is located in a canyon that is about eighty meters wide. One of the falls is forty-five meters high in free fall and the other twenty meters in stepped fall, forming at the foot of it, a basin of one thousand square meters and six meters deep. From the entrance, the trail is 6 km to the falls, and 6 km back. In the dry season, the bus can go down to the car park located 2 km from the entrance. In this case, the walk is 4 km each way, and the trail has some challenging sections. If the bus can't go down to the parking lot in the rainy season, the way back is very steep. We recommend a good physical condition.

Entrance fee (on site): AUD 94 pp. Parking fees may apply.

El Pavon Waterfall is a hidden gem in the jungle, just south of Ojochal. The waterfall itself is about 10 meters high, but what makes El Pavon unique is the large rock that sits in the middle of the waterfall and is perfectly located, as if it had been placed by a giant or an alien life form. The pool at the foot of this spectacular scene varies in size and depth depending on local rainfall and river flow, but even with a low flow, it measures about 10 meters by 10 meters and is 2 meters deep in places. Downstream, there is a natural waterfront and a small swimming pool. The hike to the falls is about 100 meters on a jungle trail that is mostly flat. Suddenly, the canopy and jungle recede and a beautiful pool and waterfall emerge.

Free. Parking fees may apply (not included).

Cascada Verde located in the middle of the rainforest along a clear cascading river, this waterfall offers stunning views, refreshing waters, and fun for all! This place is equipped with a natural slide, a 4-meter cliff, several swimming holes, and a flowing river. The hikes to Cascada Verde are very easy and suitable for hikers/kids of all fitness levels. Free. Parking fees may apply (not included).

ABOUT THE ITINERARY

Program design and excursion organization: This program has been created based on currently available services and applicable rates at the date of this proposal. The itinerary, sequence of stops, and prices must be confirmed at the time of booking.

Wildlife observation in Costa Rica is seasonal. We offer activities that allow for the observation of certain animals depending on the time of year (turtles, whales, quetzals, monkeys, etc.). Please note that, while the chances of spotting wildlife during tours are very high when the season matches each species, we do not visit zoos and cannot guarantee sightings every day. We strictly follow responsible wildlife observation practices and comply with international standards—please follow your guide's instructions at all times.

ABOUT ACCOMMODATION

Hotel confirmation: The hotels listed must be confirmed based on availability at the time of booking. In case of unavailability, we will always offer an alternative of the same category and price. If a hotel of equal category and price is not available, we will propose different options along with the corresponding rates for your selection.

Hotel category in Costa Rica does not follow European standards, as there is no governing body regulating the number of stars. Each hotel assigns itself a star rating based on its chain's standards or the services it provides. For this reason, the number of stars we have indicated may not match what you find online, as our selection and classification are based on European criteria.

RATES NOT VALID FOR: The end-of-year festive period from December 20 to January 05, and Holy Week (from March 29 to April 05, 2026) - please contact us for a rate for these periods.
