Visit: Bogotá-Medellín-Guatapé-Cartagena

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Bogota: Bienvenido a Colombia!

Women-Only Colombia Group Travel #4644

From AU$3,751.41 pp

Upon arrival at the international airport, you will be greeted and given your travel documents. Transfer to your hotel.

Bogotá, located on a vast Andean plateau at 2,600 meters (8,530 feet) above sea level, is Colombia's bustling capital and home to over 8 million people. It stands as a vital cultural and economic hub, as well as a vibrant and modern metropolis where people from all walks of life come together.

Day 02: Bogotá: Uncover the treasures of Bogotá

Explore the historic heart of Bogotá through a captivating itinerary that takes you to the city's must-see landmarks. Your adventure begins with a visit to a local market — a vibrant immersion into Colombian culture and its rich array of products.

Next, dive into the charming district of La Candelaria, where colonial architecture and old-world atmosphere transport you back in time.

Your artistic journey carries on at the Botero Museum (closed on Tuesdays), where the extravagant creations of Fernando Botero, along with his impressive international art collection, will leave you inspired.

End your day at the Gold Museum (closed on Mondays), home to a dazzling display of pre-Columbian gold artifacts and other treasures that immerse you in the history and culture of Colombia's ancient civilizations.

At night, enjoy a fun and vibrant dinner at Andrés D.C., one of Bogotá's most iconic restaurants. This multi-level venue blends Colombian flavors with music, theatrical decor, and a festive atmosphere. It's more than a restaurant — it's a true experience of Colombian culture, food, and celebration.

Day 03: Bogotá – Medellín: Off to Discover dynamic Medellín

Transfer to Bogotá airport.

Flight Bogotá – Medellín.

Transfer and installation to your hotel.

In the evening, you'll live one of the most traditional nightlife experiences in the Medellín Valley, a visit to the "Fondas" — local bars with vibrant décor and typical Colombian music, usually found in the suburbs of the city. These spots are decorated with everyday artifacts, traditional appliances, paintings, and religious icons that reflect the cultural heritage of the so-called Paisa Culture.

In the past, Fondas were traditional roadside shops in the Andean mountains around Medellín, where farmers would stop with their mules and horses to rest and enjoy a shot of the local liquor, Aguardiente. Today, the Fonda has become a popular venue for locals to enjoy music, food, and good company. This tour takes you to several authentic Fondas, where you'll sample traditional dishes and drinks while listening to the lively rhythms of Colombian folk music.

Day 04: Medellín: The city of eternal spring

Begin your journey with a guided electric bike tour through Medellín, known as the "City of Eternal Spring," renowned for its unique identity and impressive modernism.

Today, Medellín stands out as one of the most innovative cities in Latin America, having undergone a remarkable transformation over the past two decades.

Once infamous for its violence, the city has reinvented itself through bold urban development programs, becoming a global symbol of urban renewal.

Your tour continues at the iconic Plaza Botero, where the voluptuous sculptures of Colombian artist Fernando Botero have become enduring symbols of the city's cultural renaissance.

Next, explore Comuna 3, also known as Manrique — a vibrant hillside neighborhood that offers sweeping views over Medellín.

Known for its colorful murals, lively streets, and bustling local markets, Comuna 3 is a powerful reflection of the community's resilience, creativity, and cultural pride.

Day 05: Medellín – Guatapé: Guatapé and Peñol, a gorgeous panorama!

Departure from your hotel in Medellin towards Peñol.

You can then climb the 649 steps of the impressive rock and enjoy a breathtaking view of the water dam that surrounds you.

Then go to Guatapé to stroll through this charming village and discover the art of the "zocalos" that decorate the houses.

You walk through the small traditional alleys of the village such as "la calle de los enamorados".

Following the tour, settle into your new hotel and enjoy its beautiful lake views.

Day 06: Guatapé - Cartagena: Fly to the Caribbean coast

Transfer to Medellín airport.

Flight Medellín – Cartagena.

Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel, located in the heart of the historic center.

Welcome to Cartagena de Indias, the Pearl of the Caribbean.

This colonial city, with its stunning architecture, has earned its place as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Let yourself be charmed by its cobbled streets, flower-adorned balconies, and the vibrant street artists of Getsemaní. A city steeped in history; Cartagena lives on in the works of the renowned writer Gabriel García Márquez.

Day 07: Cartagena: The fantastic Cartagena

In the traditional village of La Boquilla, take part in a creative workshop led by the women of Damartes—a collective empowering mothers and grandmothers through art and entrepreneurship. After a warm welcome and a refreshing drink, discover their inspiring stories and learn how to transform coconut shells into unique accessories. Create your own handcrafted souvenir while supporting local female empowerment.

In the afternoon, step back in time with a guided walking tour of Cartagena's historic center.

Relive key moments in the city's past, marked by repeated pirate attacks, most famously by Captain Francis Drake! Discover architectural treasures such as San Pedro Claver Church and Monastery, the Cathedral (also known as the Minor Basilica), and the beautifully preserved colonial houses that line the cobbled streets.

A tasting of a local product will add a flavorful touch to your visit.

Day 08: Cartagena: Getaway to the islands

Located just an hour by boat from Cartagena, Isla Grande is the perfect choice for a beach day surrounded by Caribbean charm!

Treat yourself to a day of complete relaxation, lounging on sunbeds along the beach, or choose a bit of adventure by exploring the mangroves by kayak (optional).

Port tax not included: Amount payable on site.

To wrap up this amazing journey, all the women in the group will come together for a special farewell dinner. It's a moment to celebrate the memories made, share stories, and enjoy one last evening together before heading home.

Located in the heart of Getsemaní, Café Havana is a legendary salsa bar where the vibrant rhythms of live Cuban and Caribbean music fill the air. A favorite among locals and visitors alike, this lively spot invites you to sip on a mojito, soak in the retro ambiance, and dance the night away to the sound of top-notch salsa bands.
