Visit: Quito ??? Middle of the World - Cotopaxi - Otavalo

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Arrive Quito

Although it is the smallest of the Andean countries - half the size of France - Ecuador is a megadiverse country that has everything it takes to offer its travellers superb experiences, as varied as they are unforgettable, from the Andes to the Amazon, from the Pacific coast to the mythical Galapagos archipelago.

The country's greatest asset remains its people: welcoming, jovial, proud of their country's natural and cultural treasures, and eager to share their know-how, knowledge, traditions and gastronomy. You'll be met at the airport by your guide, who will welcome you to his country and accompany you to your hotel in the historic center.

Day 02: Historic Centre of Quito

To fully appreciate the beauty of the historic center of Quito, the largest and best preserved in Latin America, there is nothing like walking it! During your walk through the pedestrian streets, you will admire the wonders of this UNESCO World Heritage Site, starting with the lively Plaza de la Independencia with its imposing Metropolitan Cathedral and then the impressive Church of La Compañía de Jesús, before reaching the place where the Church of San Francisco and its convent are located.

The city of Quito is perched at an altitude of 2,800 m, making it the 2nd highest capital in the world. Renowned for its colonial architecture, the capital's natural environment is not to be outdone: bordered by the eastern and western ranges of the Andes, the city was founded on the slopes of the Pichincha volcano.

After lunch you'll set off for the Mitad del Mundo, on the equinoctial line, where you can test the veracity of the various properties attributed to the equator.

Day 03: Otavalo market and Cuicocha Lake

You will start the day with the Otavalo market, one of the most important in South America. You can haggle for fabrics, ponchos, leather goods, handmade jewelry... The perfect place to buy souvenirs! A stop at the fruit and vegetable place will allow you to sample some unfamiliar flavors.

You will then visit the village of Peguche, where you'll learn about the artisanal production of musical instruments and discover the charming village waterfall amidst the woods.

You will have lunch at the Kawsaymi restaurant. In a culturally rich Andean environment, you will see the processes used to prepare the dishes and learn about the 100% organic ingredients harvested from the garden.

After your walk, you will take the road to the Cotacachi-Cayapas Reserve. Along the way, you will stop to visit artisans in the village of Cotacachi. Later, you will arrive at Lake Cuicocha. You will stroll along the edges of this magnificent crater lake to view its two islands from various angles.

Back to Quito at the end of the day.

Day 04: National Park Cotopaxi

In the morning you will take "Avenida de los volcanes" to reach the Cotopaxi National Park where one of the highest active volcanoes in the world rises.

Within the national park there are 4 peaks over 4,000 m above sea level, including the best-known Cotopaxi "neck of the moon" volcano (5,897 m) with a symmetrical cone covered in snow. In its more than 32,000 hectares cohabit wild horses, llamas, foxes, deer, spectacled bears and the majestic condor. You will first visit the interpretation center to learn more about the park and its volcano, then you will stop to walk around the Limpiopungo lake at the foot of the Rumiñahui volcano. From there you will enjoy an exceptional view of the surrounding countryside.
