Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Mexico City

Arrival at the International Airport of Mexico City. Transfer to your hotel downtown. Overnight stay in Mexico City.

Meal Plan

No Meal

Day 02: Mexico City: Teotihuacán

After the breakfast, you will discover Teotihuacán. This is the most important archeological site in central Mexico, meaning "Place where the gods are born." It was one of the most important urban centers of ancient Mexico. Its imposing Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon, along with the majestic Avenue of the Dead and the Temple of Quetzalcoatl, reflect the architectural and spiritual grandeur of this civilization. Strolling through the archaeological site is a journey into the past that allows you to imagine life in one of the most influential cultures of Mesoamerica.

In the afternoon, you can enjoy a city tour of Mexico City's historic center, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. We will walk through the Plaza de la Constitución, known as the Zócalo, admiring the imposing Metropolitan Cathedral and the National Palace. The tour continues through streets steeped in history, colonial architecture, and vibrant cultural life, showcasing the fusion of the pre-Hispanic past and colonial heritage in one of the most fascinating cities in the world.

Overnight stay in Mexico City.

Breakfast

Day 03: Mexico City - Puebla

After the breakfast, transfer to Puebla.

Upon arrival, you will enjoy a guided city tour. Puebla, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is a captivating blend of history, art and tradition. You will love its historic center with majestic baroque churches, cobblestone streets, and facades adorned with Talavera tiles. Known as the "City of Angels", Puebla is also the birthplace of some of Mexico's most iconic gastronomy, including "el Mole Poblano" and "chiles en nogada". All of this, framed by the breathtaking landscape of the Popocatepetl and Iztaccíhuatl volcanoes, makes Puebla a destination not to be missed.

Overnight stay in Puebla.

Breakfast

Day 04: Puebla - Oaxaca

After the breakfast, transfer to Oaxaca.

Upon arrival, we will enjoy a guided city tour. Oaxaca, also a UNESCO World Heritage Site, invites you to discover its colonial charm and vibrant culture. We will visit the magnificent Temple of Santo Domingo, one of the finest examples of New Spanish Baroque, and stroll through the colorful streets of the historic center, filled with handicrafts and traditional flavors. The tour also includes the renowned “20 de Noviembre” market, famous for its gastronomy, where you can taste authentic chocolate, rich moles, and traditional tlayudas. This experience beautifully reflects the cultural wealth and warm spirit of Oaxaca.

Overnight stay in Oaxaca.

Meal Plan

Breakfast

Day 05: Oaxaca: Monte Albán

After the breakfast, we will visit the archeological site of Monte Albán. Monte Albán, the ancient Zapotec capital and one of the most impressive archeological sites in Mexico, rises at the top of a hill with spectacular views of the Oaxaca Valley. Founded more than 2,500 years ago, it was a political, economic, and ceremonial center. During the visit, you will admire its grand plazas, temples, tombs, and astronomical observatories, which reflect the greatness of the Zapotec civilization and its profound knowledge of the cosmos.

Free afternoon to explore and enjoy on your own.

Overnight stay in Oaxaca.

Day 06: Oaxaca - Cholula

After the breakfast, we will leave Oaxaca and head out to San Pedro Cholula.

Upon arrival, we will visit the archeological site of Cholula, famous for having the largest pyramid in the world by volume base: an impressive monument built by ancient pre-hispanic civilizations. On top of it stands the Sanctuary of our Lady of Remedies, a symbol of the blend between indigenous and Spanish cultures. From the summit, you can enjoy stunning views of the Puebla Valley and the majestic Popocatepetl and Iztaccíhuatl volcanoes. Afterwards, the colorful streets invite us to explore its handicrafts galleries, local flavours, and festive traditions.

Overnight stay in Cholula.
