Visit: Paris

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Welcome to Paris, the city of light!

Upon arrival at CDG airport, your driver and assistant will be ready to welcome you to enjoy a private transfer to your hotel for check-in. Once settled and refreshed, meet your private driver as you start off on your unforgettable French adventure with an evening dinner cruise along the Seine, marvelling at sights such as the beautifully floodlit Notre Dame Cathedral, whilst enjoying your delicious meal. Take in Paris's bridges and boulevards, which exude even more charm under the evening sky, as the relaxed pace of the night truly embodies the romantic essence of the city of light. After dinner, follows an awe-inspiring visit to the Eiffel Tower, which after ascending the tower's heights, enjoy a breathtaking evening view of the cityscape. Overnight in Paris.

Day 02: Paris, Magnifique!

Today, embark on an enchanting exploration of Paris with your English-speaking driverguide, immersing yourself in its iconic landmarks and rich history. Begin at Place de la Concorde, admiring the grandeur of its architecture, then marvel at the opulence of the Garnier National Opera. Drive along the legendary Champs-Élysées, taking in its tree-lined boulevards and historic arcades, before pausing at the Arc de Triomphe and the Eiffel Tower, symbols of Parisian pride and elegance. Visit the Musée d'Orsay to admire masterpieces by Monet, Van Gogh, and Degas, housed in the stunning Beaux-Arts railway station, and continue to the Louvre Museum for a private guided tour, skipping the lines to explore iconic works of art from the Mona Lisa to the Pyramid entrance. As night falls, enjoy a private 2-hour evening tour in a classic Citroën 2CV, winding through the charming streets of Montmartre. Admire the illuminated Sacré-Coeur Basilica, cobbled lanes, and lively cafés as you sip champagne, soaking in the artistic and bohemian spirit of this historic Parisian neighborhood. Overnight in Paris.

Day 03: Champagne Country, Vineyards & Bubbles!

Today, meet your private English-speaking driver-guide to explore the captivating Champagne region, a UNESCO World Heritage Site celebrated for its stunning scenery and vineyards. Begin in Epernay, home to prestigious champagne houses such as Moët & Chandon and Perrier-Jouët. At Moët & Chandon, enjoy their signature tour, discovering the history, tradition, and artistry behind their world-renowned champagnes, followed by a tasting of their exquisite bubbly. Continue your journey through picturesque Gothic villages scattered across the countryside, and visit Reims with its UNESCO-listed cathedral. Stop in the village of Hautvillers to see the tomb of Dom Pérignon, the Benedictine monk considered the godfather of Champagne. Cap off your day with a visit to a charming, family-run estate, where you will explore intimate cellars and enjoy additional tastings, experiencing firsthand the craftsmanship that has made this region legendary. Overnight in Paris.

Day 04: Escape to the Château...

Meet your private English-speaking driver guide before setting out to discover the charm of the Loire Valley and its magnificent castles. Begin your journey at the magnificent Château de Chambord, commissioned by King Francis and possibly influenced by Leonardo da Vinci. The Château is a sprawling national game reserve and architectural marvel, boasting over 400 rooms, a 156-meter facade, 282 chimneys, and a remarkable double helix staircase. Next, travel to Amboise for a guided tour of Château du Clos Lucé, where Leonardo da Vinci spent his final years. Explore his living quarters, Renaissance rooms, and inventions displayed throughout the castle and park. Conclude your tour with a visit to the captivating Château de Chenonceau, known as the "Chateau des Dames" for its ties to influential women. This castle, enriched by figures like Diane de Poitiers and Catherine de Medici, showcases a rich feminine legacy. Admire the grand entrance door, bearing historical inscriptions, and the iconic Salamander emblem of King Francis I. Overnight in Paris.
