Day 06: Hatton

Spend the days at leisure within the vast tea Plantation. Visit tea plantations and tea tour.

During this experience, you'll learn all about the tea production process by visiting one of our local tea factories. The factories themselves are icons of the Hill Country; vast, atmospheric and filled with heavy machinery, some dating back over a century, these multi-windowed warehouses are where the magic process of tea production happens. The leaves are brought in from the tea gardens, dried, withered and rolled, before being fired to remove as much moisture as possible. Finally, they're sorted into fragrant particle sizes ranging from the finest dust to the most prized variety, orange pekoe.

One of the factory managers will host you on this experience and take you on a guided tour, showing you the processes, introducing you to the machines and demonstrating how each of them works. At the end, you'll have the opportunity to taste a few varieties of tea in an insightful tea tasting session. The factories have a few varieties of tea for sale so if you wish you can purchase some to take back home.

Enjoy a tea infused dinner, bringing together the subtle influences of the flavours of tea, the Tea-Infused Dinner is a signature culinary experience unique to Tea Trails and is bound to appeal to both the intellectual curiosity as well as the palate of any gourmand. Held at your bungalow.
