Day 04: Hoshiarpur-Pragpur (75 Kms/1-2 Hours)

After leisurely breakfast drive to JUDGE'S COURT, PRAGPUR. After lunch enjoy the heritage Village Walk. The Kangra Valley, where Heritage Village Pragpur is located, is panoramic and replete with history. It is the home of the famous Kangra School of painting and probably the world's - most certainly India's - oldest ruling lineage comes from here. Heritage village Pragpur is promoted as an example of community involvement in tourism. The core area of Pragpur is notified as a "Heritage village", and along with nearby village of Garli, the surrounding area is a Heritage Zone. The site chosen for Pragpur lies in the shade of the Dhauladhar mountains - the white ranges - and is said to be so located as to receive the astral benefic influence of prayers that have been offered for thousands of years Founded about 3 centuries ago Pragpur has held onto the essence of an earlier era - unchanged shops, cobbled streets, ornamental village tank, mud plastered and slate roofed houses. Evening relax at the hotel's orchard. Overnight at hotel.

Day 09: Kullu

Enjoy the rest of the day enjoying the peace by the river. Optional: Excursion to Naggar After breakfast at leisure, you have an option to take a tour to Naggar, the former capital of the Kulu Kingdom. In addition to visiting the 450-year-old Naggar castle, we stroll around the village visiting a handful of stone and wood carved temples dating back to the 15th century. Also worth visiting in Naggar is the Roerich Art gallery (closed on Mondays) or you may wish to take a tour to Himalayan Cheese Factory. Return to Raison by the evening to enjoy the peace at your villas.

Meal Plan

Day 10: Kullu-Manali-Kullu

A very early start (5am) to set off north to travel on one of the high motor able roads to Rohtang La ('La' is Tibetan for a 'Pass') (Subject to weather condition). This pass featured heavily in the early exploration of the Western Himalaya. From the pass one looks at two different worlds: one to the south – lush green and inviting, the other to the North, cold and bleak. Later visit to Manali that includes a visit to the over 400 years old 'Hadimba' Temple built in the characteristic pagoda-style hill architecture set amidst an equally ancient pine forest. The tour can also include a visit to the old Manali village, observing life in a western Himalayan village and its wonderful people. In the evening return to our hotel a restful evening.

Day 11: Kullu (Trek to Jana Village)

Followed by breakfast served in the "Gazebo" on the riverside, a beautiful and an invigorating day await those that undertake this fantastic excursion. It is a wonderful mix starting with a jeep safari across suspension bridges, fruit laden orchards, terraced fields, Himalayan villages, pagoda style temples and thick pine forests. Once we leave the comfort (somewhat bumpy!) of our jeeps, we follow a dirt road for some distance traversing across side valleys, mountain springs, wild apricot trees and wooden houses. The easy trail allows us to look around as we walk and also observe the rich flora and fauna of the region specially the numerous birds that we chance upon; to name a few easily spotted ones; Verditer Flycatcher, Great Barbet, Long Tailed or scarlet Minivets, Woodpeckers and the handsome Yellow Billed Blue Magpies. At the end of the dirt road is a small ropeway, it gives us an opportunity to understand how the fruit from the apple and pear orchards up in the hills is transported down the steep hillsides, using just the gravitational force of the cartons and a wooden brake! From here we still have another 40 minutes' walk along a much narrower trail going through terraced fields and orchards, descending steeply for the last 15 minutes (utmost caution required here) to a camp site and picnic spot and it is located on the banks of a pristine little mountain stream that allows us all to cool our heels in the refreshing cold water. Picnic style lunch is served by village staff. After lunch and an hour of rest, Option: Continue our walk up to Jana Village or head back to the dirt road to ride back in jeeps to Neeralaya. (The hike to Jana after lunch is a steep one and will definitely test fitness levels of the guests. Besides being an invigorating walk, it rewards us with the understanding of life in a Western Himalayan village with the trail dotted with watermills, sawmills, village deities, its houses and its shy but friendly people!). Later return back to Neeralaya cottage.

Meal Plan

Day 12: Kullu-Shimla (225 Kms/ 6-7 Hours)

After breakfast check-out and drive to Shimla. On arrival check-in at hotel Shimla: Scottish civil servant Charles Pratt Kennedy built Shimla's first British summer home in 1822 and by half the latter of the 19th century the town had become the summer capital of the British Raj. British soldiers, merchants and civil servants moved there each year to escape the heat and disease of summer in the Indo-Gangetic plains. Imposing Victorian monuments still dot Shimla bearing testimony to pre-independence days of British rule in India. Visit the Mall, Gaiety Theatre and the Vice Regal Lodge.
