Visit: Ushuaia - El Calafate

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Arrive Ushuaia

Arrival and reception at the airport; transfer to the selected hotel. In the afternoon, we visit a lagoon that impresses with the colour of its waters. We leave the city on Route 3 to reach the beginning of the trail. During the walk we cross the Tierra Mayor Valley, which depending on the weather the terrain can be uncomfortable, but when we reach the lagoon, the effort has its reward. We continue walking until we reach a shelter where dinner is served and then return to the city.

Day 02: Ushuaia

We leave towards the Tierra del Fuego National Park and once there we get to know the most relevant attractions through a trekking along the Coastal Path. Upon arriving at Lake Acigami, we have lunch and after a technical talk we start floating in canoes on the Lapa Taia and Ovando rivers culminating in Lapa Taia Bay. Undoubtedly the best way to explore the Park.

Day 03: Ushuaia

We leave by National Route No 3 and then we take Route J, which takes us towards the east of the island. At midday we arrive at Larsiphashaj River, where we begin preparations to row in inflatable canoes along the river and then through the Beagle Channel to Harberton Estancia. Once the activity finishes and we reach the hull of the estancia, we take a boat in the direction of Martillo Island, where we have the chance to see penguins in their breeding place from the boat. The boat trip continues to Gable Island, where we have lunch and enjoy a walk.

Day 05: El Calafate

We leave to Los Glaciares National Park, declared a Natural Heritage Site by UNESCO. From Bahia Bajo las Sombras, we cruise Rico Branch until we reach the shelter, starting point of a short walk in which we use crampons to climb to the ice and stay for almost two hours. On our way back to the shelter, we have lunch (box lunch) and then head for the walkways where we spend an hour to admire it from another perspective. The glacier is an impressive river of ice with an area of 257 square kilometres, and with front walls up to 50 to 60 meters above the level of the lake.

Day 06: El Calafate

Today we explore an area where few people have access. The road leads us to Roca Lake where we embark to sail Sur Branch, until we reach the starting point of our one-hour walk to Frías Lake. After crossing the lake in zodiac, we begin the last part of the trekking by a riverbed, until we get Anfiteatro de los Glaciares. Here, we have lunch (box lunch) while we admire Grande, Cubo and Dickson Glaciers. We return by the same path.
