Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Arrival in Helsinki

Finnish Lakes and Forests #3911

From AU$1,590.91 pp

The tour will begin with an arrival in Finland's capital. Accommodation will be arranged in a centrally located hotel in Helsinki.

Meal Plan

No Meal

Day 02: Helsinki – Lappeenranta

The journey will continue in an eastern direction toward Lappeenranta. A recommended stop can be made en route in Porvoo, Finland's second oldest town, known for its colourful riverside warehouses and cobbled streets. Two nights' accommodation will be arranged in Lappeenranta.

Day 03: Lake Saimaa

A full day will be at your own disposal. It is recommended to join a two-hour cruise on Lake Saimaa, the largest lake in Finland, and visit the sandcastle attraction, open from June to August. In the evening, an excursion to the Imatrankoski rapids can also be considered.

Day 04: Lappeenranta – Savonlinna – Joensuu

The route continues through the heart of Finland's famed lake lands. En route, a stop in Savonlinna is suggested, where the medieval Olavinlinna Castle sits dramatically on a lakeside island. Accommodation will be provided in Joensuu.

Day 05: Joensuu – Jyväskylä

The journey proceeds westward past Varkaus to Jyväskylä, a city well known for its vibrant arts and cultural scene. Accommodation will be arranged in a centrally located hotel.

Day 06: Jyväskylä – Tampere – Turku

The route will pass through Tampere, situated between two lakes with a unique difference in water level of 18 metres, linked by the Tammerkoski rapids. The journey then continues to Turku, Finland's oldest city. Accommodation will be provided in Turku.

Day 07: Turku – Helsinki

Return to Helsinki via Salo, known for its ties to the origins of Nokia phones. A final night's accommodation will be arranged in the capital city.

Day 08: Departure

Departure will take place according to your own itinerary.
