Day 04: East Ankarana-Iharana Rush Camp

Breakfast at the lodge & check out. This day will be spent to discovering the Tsingy of Ankarana before you reach Iharana Antsaravibe, Tsingy southwest gate. The strolls vary from 4h to 5h and people suffering from dizziness should refrain. Commonly called the “caves” or the “Tsingy”, this reserve constitutes a harmonious set of eroded limestone rocks and hides within its subterranean network. It is an important part of the cultural treasure of Ankarana. It is in the Northern part of the island, in the region of Ambilobe, and it presents caves, gorges and sinkholes (canyons) of volcanic landscapes. The Tsingy also contains an exceptional diversity. Inventories have listed 60 species of reptiles and amphibians, 96 species of birds, 50 species of mollusks and great number of snails. 14 species of bats, that is half of the bats of Madagascar, live in the caves of Ankarana. Lunch at your own account (suggestion: snacks and picnics). Then in the afternoon you will drive towards Iharana Bush Camp . Enjoy dinner at the Bush Camp.

Day 05: Iharana Rush Camp

Breakfast at the Camp. In the morning, explore the Tsingy face to the camp, through a magnificent "aerial" stroll on the Tsingy roof. The panorama is stunning. On the way, a few lookouts have been set up to allow you to appreciate the best viewpoints. With luck, you could encounter groups of crowned lemurs, reptiles and birds – 3h/3h30 walk, 150m of ascending elevation, average difficulty, and hiking trail, arranged and secured trails. This tour includes the “Chameleon Cave”. People suffering from dizziness should refrain. Necessary equipment: good walking shoes or good sneakers, items to protect from the sun, insect repellent, headlamps and mineral water Lunch at your own account (to be booked at the camp) In the middle of the afternoon, you will have a nice discovery of “Mandresy Cave” – Huge cavity full of stalagmite and stalactite. A track has been designed to make the cave accessible for everyone. You will have the privilege to see some blind fish and the famous fruit bats of Madagascar or “Madagascar Flying Fox”. You will also be amazed to see the different shapes of the stalagmites and particularly the size of the cavities which hide various magic places! On the way, you will find some cooking utensils, cooking pots and glasses because the caves were used as a shelter by the Ankarana people. The remainder of the time for free time and take profit of the camp and its facilities (pirogue, biking, massage, ecological swimming pool, nocturnal walk, yodel).
