Small Ship Cruise

Unique Itineraries

Visit: Ghent - Oudenaarde - Peronnes-lez-Antoing - Mons - Strepy-Thieu - Halle

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Ghent

Possibility of transfer between Brussels and Ghent (about a one-hour ride). Passengers are welcome to board our ship at 6 p.m. After comfortably settling into your cabins, we'll introduce our crew at a welcome cocktail.

Day 02: Ghent-Oudenaarde

This morning, join us for a guided tour of Ghent. Accompanied by a guide, you will leave the boat on foot to explore the historic centre of Ghent, the birthplace of Charles V and former capital of the County of Flanders. You will admire its rich medieval heritage, including Saint Bavo's Cathedral, the Gothic belfry, the Cloth Hall, as well as the Graslei and Korenlei, up to the Counts' Castle (external view). Free time will allow you to enjoy the city, followed by a stop in a local brewery where you will taste a gruit beer and discover Ghent's brewing history. Return on board at Gavere-Asper (or surroundings) for lunch.

In the afternoon, join us for a guided tour of Bruges and a brewery visit. Drive to Bruges (approximately 1 to 1h15 by coach from Ghent). Its art collections, pleasant atmosphere, romantic aura and architectural appeal are just a few highlights of the "Venice of the North", gem of Flanders and a must-visit in Northern Europe. A prosperous maritime city in the 14th century, Bruges retains from that era an elaborate, elegantly discreet architecture. Afterward, visit a brewery and enjoy a tasting. This brewery's history began in 1856. After many years and six family generations, it is now a dynamic brewery true to its roots, offering authentic Bruges beers. After the excursion, we will rejoin the boat at Oudenaarde. Evening at leisure. Overnight stay.

Day 03: Oudenaarde-Péronnes-lez-Antoing

This morning, join us for a guided tour of Oudenaarde and a distillery. Oudenaarde is a picturesque city full of historic monuments, with the most notable being the town hall and its two main churches. Other memorable sites include the lovely beguinage, the house where Margaret of Parma was born, the Boudewijnstoren, and the 18th-century meat market. Everything is testimony to a rich and lively past. The city has more than 100 historic monuments. Set off on an urban hike taking you to the loveliest areas and tourist sites. Enjoy some free time on your own to see what the city has to offer. We'll then head over to a distillery. This will be the time to learn about how jenever, gin, and whiskey are distilled. Of course, we'll have a taste!

After we return on board, our ship will continue cruising to Péronnes-lez-Antoing. Take advantage of some downtime to relax on the Sun Deck and watch the scenery roll by. We'll cross through the city of Tournai before arriving in Péronnes-lez-Antoing in the early evening. If you'd like, you can work off dinner during an evening stroll. We'll remain in port overnight.

Day 04: Péronnes-lez-Antoing-Mons

We'll spend the morning cruising on the Nimy-Blaton-Péronnes Canal, a strategic waterway in the center of Belgium. The canal opened in October 1955 and enabled a liaison between the Canal du Centre and the Scheldt River. We'll arrive in Mons at the beginning of the afternoon. Set off on a visit to the Château de Beloeil (1) and the Chant d'Éole vineyard. We'll head over to the Château de Beloeil—nicknamed the Belgian Versailles—which contains a valuable collection of 15th- to 19th-century art, including a library with more than 20,000 books and precious manuscripts. The furniture is a sampling of some of the top work of French cabinet makers in the 17th and 18th centuries. The paintings depict the grand achievements of most of the castle's family members. We'll continue on to the Chant d'Éole estate. The vineyard came to be when a family of Belgian farmers joined forces with a family of eminent sparkling-wine makers. They use the best modern techniques to guarantee a sparkling wine that adheres to Belgian tradition. We'll take a guided tour recounting the vineyard's history. Our enthusiastic guides will explain the different stages of production—from planting to bottling, and everything in between. We'll finish up the tour with a tasting of three signature spirits—the Brut Blanc de Blancs, the Rosé Brut, and the Elixir Saint-Georges. We'll return to Mons. We'll remain in port overnight.

Day 05: Mons-Strepy Thieu

Join us for a food tour in Mons this morning. Few cities can boast about their heritage like Mons can. This is a vibrant, modern city with a deep, historic past. The Grand-Place offers a myriad of places to lose yourself in. Our guide will take us to the center of Mons to learn about the city's history and edible delights. This stroll is a combination of history, culture, and anecdotes accented by a tasting of four local specialties. Indulging in the local cuisine makes this tour an unforgettable experience.

We'll return to the ship for lunch. This afternoon, we'll cruise on Canal du Centre to Strépy-Thieu. We'll remain in port overnight.

Day 06: Strepy Thieu-Halle

Get ready for a once-in-a-lifetime experience as our barge takes a boat lift. Using two independent caissons, the lift allows a crossing in less than 35 minutes with a 240-foot height difference (75 m) and single-handedly replaced four former boat lifts and two locks. We'll continue our trip on the Brussels-Charleroi Canal to Halles. The next adventure is the monumental Ronquières Inclined Plane, built between 1960 and 1968. Construction of the plane reduced delays caused by the 14 previous locks. We'll continue cruising to Halle.

In the afternoon, we'll take a coach to Brussels for a guided tour of the city and a Belgian chocolate maker's workshop. We'll set off for the Belgian capital. In the city center, we'll see the Grand-Place with its glorious city hall and lavish guildhalls. With its richly decorated facade and impressive tower, the City Hall is one of the most beautiful buildings in the country. Further along, we'll see the iconic Manneken Pis and the Royal Saint-Hubert Galleries. After, we'll visit a Belgian chocolate maker in the heart of Brussels. Learn about our favorite indulgence—from its Mayan origins to the modern creations of master chocolate makers—while watching a demonstration of the meticulous and precise work through windows peering into the small factory. We'll return on board the ship in Halle. Tonight is our festive gala evening.
