Day 10: Hoi An – Fly to Saigon

Rest of the day at your leisure until transferred to Danang Airport for your onward flight to Ho Chi Minh City.

Afternoon visit the Reunification Palace, the former residence of the President of South Vietnam until the fall of Saigon on April 30, 1975. Today this building is a museum and venue for official receptions. The nearby Notre Dame Cathedral, built between 1877 and 1883 is one of the city's major landmarks. Neo-Romanesque in form, it's the major seat of the Catholic religion in modern Vietnam. Next to the cathedral stands the Saigon Post Office. Finished in 1891, it's another fine example of French architecture and is Vietnam's largest post office. Continue to the Chinatown of Cho Lon with visit to Thien Hau Temple – one of the oldest Chinese temples in Ho Chi Minh City.

Overnight in Ho Chi Minh City.

Meal Plan

Breakfast

Day 11: Saigon – Cu Chi Tunnels – Saigon

Morning visit Cu Chi Tunnels. Watch a short introductory video showing how the tunnels were constructed before seeing various mantraps, the remains of an American tank as well as numerous bomb craters made by 500 pound bombs dropped by B52 bombers. Spend the next hour exploring the maze of tunnels to see how the Viet Cong communists were able to survive in this underground network.

Rest of the day is free at leisure.

Overnight in Ho Chi Minh City.

Meal Plan

Breakfast

Day 12: Saigon – Ben Tre – Can Tho

After breakfast, head South to Ben Tre in the Mekong Delta. On arrival, take a boat cruise to see local life along the river. Visit brick and coconut processing workshops. Turn to smaller scissors creeks to go to a village. Take a walk to family workshop making sleep mats and enjoy some seasonal fruits. Take a motorcar ride on shady paths, passing rice fields and vegetable plains. In the afternoon, take a rowing boat along the water palm creek and then to the pier to take the drive to Can Tho.

Overnight in Can Tho.

Meal Plan

Breakfast and Lunch

Day 13: Can Tho – Saigon

In the morning cruise along the small and picturesque tributaries to see Cai Rang floating market – the biggest and most interesting floating market of the Mekong Delta with heaps of rowing boats. Take in the beautiful scenery and the daily activities of the local people who live along the Mekong canals. Check out of hotel and drive back to Ho Chi Minh City.

Rest of the day is free at leisure.

Overnight in Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 15: Explore Kampong Khleang and Beng Mealea temple full day

After breakfast, you will head out to Kampong Kleang “floating village”, which is, in fact, a stilt-houses settlement of over 20,000 people where structures can tower up to ten meters above the water. Greeted by waves of the friendly locals, here you can glimpse Cambodia’s countryside culture and traditional family lifestyle. To get closer to it, you will have a chance to enjoy a home-hosted lunch and dine on stilts.

In the afternoon, we transfer to the forgotten temple of Beng Mealea. After a short walk through a dense jungle, you'll feel like an explorer when entering the completely overgrown temple. Undiscovered for centuries, Beng Mealea has only recently been made accessible and remains unrestored. It is one of the very few temples that actually give the opportunity to climb through it, giving a very 'Indiana Jones' feel to the experience.

Overnight in Siem Reap.

Note: From February to August/September the water level of the Tonle Sap Lake is very low. It's muddy and the boat can get stuck. If clients are still keen on having a boat trip on the lake we'll change to Chong Kneas floating village instead of Kompong Kleang where the condition is a little bit better for the boat trip.

Breakfast and Lunch

Day 16: Visit Angkor Wat - Ta Prohm - Angkor Thom full day

Today is dedicated to the discovery of the essentials of Angkor temples. Let's first explore Angkor Wat, easily the most famous and best-preserved of all temples within the Angkor complex. It is a massive three-tiered structure crowned by five lotus-like towers rising 65-metres from ground level. Next, visit the ancient walled city of Angkor Thom, the last capital of the Great Khmer Empire under the reign of Jayavarman VII. Bayon Temple, Baphuon, the royal enclosure, and the Terraces of the Elephants and the Leper King are the main elements of this 12th century masterpiece. A lunch break will be arranged in a local restaurant and will be at your own expense. We continue to Ta Prohm Temple, which, unlike most other Angkor temples, has been left just as it was when rediscovered: a photogenic and atmospheric maze of trees growing out of the ruins. Return to the hotel in the late afternoon and enjoy the rest of the day at your own leisure.

Note: Appropriate attire when visiting Angkor temples is long pants (covering the knee) and shirts that cover shoulders. Skirts, small shorts, tank tops, and other items of revealing clothing are not allowed within temple grounds. Visitors can and are frequently turned away from temples when wearing revealing clothing.
