Meal Plan

No Meal

Day 02: Tokyo

Breakfast at the hotel. Full day dedicated to visiting Tokyo with an English-speaking guide. We start with a splendid view of the megalopolis from the observatory of the Bunkyo Civic Centre. Then we visit the Edo Fukagawa museum where we find life-size representations of daily life in the area at the time. Finally we will take you to visit the characteristic Asakusa district, where the 7th-century Senso-ji Temple, the oldest in the city, and the long Nakamise-dori avenue with its traditional shops stand. Finally, a walk to the Ginza district where the visit ends.

Breakfast

Day 03: Tokyo

Breakfast at the hotel. Full day at leisure. Or Optional guided tour of Tokyo (Not bookable on site) - A CROSSROAD INTO THE PAST Full day dedicated to visiting some of Tokyo's most historic districts. We will start by visiting Tsukiji Fish Market, the outer market. Although a new location for the fish market has recently been created, the original location is still there, alive and full of excellent places that sell and cook excellent fresh fish. We will continue to explore the picturesque Yanaka district and in particular the folkloristic Yanaka Ginza street full of local restaurants, street food, and small shops and where you can breathe in a bygone era. Finally, transfer to the popular Shibuya district, famous for its impressive intersection with what is said to be the world's busiest pedestrian crossing. Meals not included.
