Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Mumbai-Udaipur

This morning you will be met by your local English-speaking representative at your Mumbai hotel and transferred to the airport for your flight to Udaipur. Upon arrival in Udaipur, you will be met by another local English-speaking representative and transferred to your hotel. The remainder of the day is free at your leisure. The origins of Udaipur are based on a legend which tells of a holy sage that Maharaja Udai Singh encountered while hunting in the foothills of the Aravalli Range in Mewar. The sage told the King to build a palace in that exact spot and it would be well protected, and so with this advice Maharaja Udai Singh built his residence there. At the time, Chittorgarh was the capital of Mewar state. However in 1568 Chittorgarh was attacked by the Mughal Emperor Akbar, and so Maharaja Udai Singh moved the capital to Udaipur. Today, the City Palace of Udaipur is still home to Maharaja Udai Singh's descendants who remain rulers of this independent state.

Day 02: In Udaipur

This morning, begin your exploration of Udaipur with a visit to the massive City Palace which overlooks Lake Pichola. The City Palace, built in 1725, comprises of 11 palaces including the Dilkush Mahal, Sheesh Mahal, Moti Mahal and the Palace of Lord Krishna, all of which are ornately decorated. Afterwards, tour the Sahelion Ki Bari Garden (Garden for the Maids of Honour). This delightful 18th-century retreat in the north of the city was built for the Queen of Udaipur, whose dowry included 48 maids. Following this, you will get a chance to see the Folk Museum of Udaipur. This afternoon you enjoy a cruise on the 4km long Lake Pichola, fringed with hills, palaces, havelis, ghats and temples. While on the cruise you will see the Lake Palace, formally known as Jag Niwas, built between 1734 and 1751. It was once a Royal summer retreat and is now one of the world's greatest hotels. It is also a popular location for film shoots, including James Bond's Octopussy.
