Day 02: Quito Historic Center & Middle Of The World

Dive into the heart of Quito with a tour of its UNESCO-listed historic center. Begin by exploring Independence Plaza, where the Presidential Palace and the Cathedral stand. Visit La Compañía de Jesús, famous for its golden interior, and San Francisco Church, one of the city's oldest structures. After lunch, travel to the Mitad del Mundo monument, located on the equatorial line. Here, you can stand in both the Northern and Southern Hemispheres and learn about the significance of the equator in Ecuador's history.

Day 06: Chimborazo Volcano

Visit Chimborazo, Ecuador's tallest peak, whose summit is the farthest point from the Earth's center due to the planet's equatorial bulge. The base of the volcano offers scenic hikes through Andean landscapes rich with unique flora and fauna, including the iconic vicuña. As you explore, take in the majestic views of snow-capped Chimborazo. The surrounding páramo is a haven for birdwatchers, and the Chuquiragua flower, also known as the "flower of the Andes," blooms here.
