Visit: Zanzibar

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Arrive Zanzibar

You will be met on arrival at Zanzibar Airport if you arrive by international or internal flight or in harbor if you arrive by boat/ferry from Dar es Salaam and transfer to a hotel in stone town for rest and overnight. After short rest, our guide will meet you and provide a little timetable schedule about your whole stay at Zanzibar and day-to-day activities before departure back from this amazing island. Zanzibar has a rich history and it became a centre of trade once it was settled by the Portuguese in the 16th and 17th Century. Zanzibar once held the title of being Africa's major hub of trade before the mainland became more settled and tamed (if Africa could ever be considered tamed). Zanzibar is also known as the 'Spice Island' due to this period when spice was its major trade followed closely by the slave trade and ivory. Zanzibar still today flourishes with the trade of spices, its most common exports being cloves, nutmeg, cinnamon and pepper. Accommodation: Tembo House Hotel Zanzibar or Golden Tulip Zanzibar Resort

Day 03: Explore Zanzibar Beach

After breakfast at the hotel, you will be transferred by our driver to Nungwi. The Northern Zanzibar beaches are best all year round. Spend full at leisure relaxing on one of Zanzibar's beautiful white sands and activities (optional/upon request). You will spend the night in the sea facing bedrooms for best unwinding. The nights here are silent, only you and the Indian Ocean will buzz the nights. For those feeling active, there's a wide range of excursions available such as water sports that you can enjoy (snorkeling, scuba diving & dolphin safaris). Overnight at the Nungwi Dreams or Z Hotel Zanzibar or Royal Beach Zanzibar beach hotel for overnight.

Day 04: Mnemba Island

After breakfast divers and snorkelers take a ¾ day out to Mnemba Island (lunch at your own). This is one of our must-do activities that you will not want to miss while you are in Zanzibar. The tiny but exceptional Mnemba reef offers indeed some of the best and most spectacular spots in the whole Archipelago, if not in East Africa. On this trip, you might (85% chance) see dolphins while cruising from Nungwi to Mnemba, you will stop for a while and you can enjoy seeing get a stop to see the dolphins swimming, and a chance to take photos. Also, there is a Sandbank beside Mnemba Island, with a chance to get out there after snorkeling when it is low tides. Mnemba is well known for the excellent clarity of its waters (for this area of the Indian Ocean) and the unusually prolific and diverse corals and tropical marine life where you are able to see a lot of colorful fishes while snorkeling. Some of the species that you can see at Mnemba reef include Angel Fish, Blue Spotted Rays, Black Snappers, Groupers, Red Tooth Triggers, Flounder, Octopuses, Leaf Fish, Scorpion Fish, Stone Fish, Frog Fish and lots of Trevallies. For the evening enjoy a sunset cruise or hang out at the restaurant for some great sunset views. Overnight at the Nungwi Dreams or Z Hotel Zanzibar or Royal Beach Zanzibar beach hotel for overnight.
