Day 07: Ranohira (Isalo)-Ifaty

Breakfast at the hotel & check out. Leave Ranohira for Ifaty passing by the new village of Ilakaka which has experienced the rapid demographic increase because of the existence of Safire mines exploration. Stop on the way for 2 hours at the Zombitse/Vohibasia National Park for a stroll (90km after Ranohira)– Endangered area 168 km² (Zombitse part) of dry forest, marshes, and savannahs. Only a patch of protected forest remains nowadays in the middle of this devastation, giving shelter to an abundant fauna/flora biodiversity and constitutes the most important remnant of dry deciduous forest of Madagascar (Baobabs and several orchids are common, 15 small mammals, 2 carnivorous and 8 lemur species, such as the Verreaux’s Sifaka, red-fronted brown lemur, ring-tailed lemur, pale fork-marked lemur and the Hubbard’s sportive lemur can be observed here. Continue to Toliary across a magnificent landscape and the first baobab. Lunch at your own account (suggestions: local restaurant in Tulear or late lunch in Ifaty) Continuation to Ifaty along the “Vezo” village and installation at your hotel, facing the Mozambique Channel. We strongly advise our clients against the visit of the shells market. The shells and coral displayed are the result of a massive destruction of the coral reef around Tulear and Ifaty. By any show of interest we shall encourage pillage.
