Day 03: Muscat – Nizwa

After breakfast, at 09:00 hrs, you depart from the hotel to start your tour. Your destination is the old capital of Oman, Nizwa, where you will explore the Nizwa Fort and the historic Palaces that once overlooked the Kingdom of Nizwa. The tour includes a visit to the expansive round fort of the Yaruba dynasty, the largest fort in the Arabian Peninsula. Additionally, you'll have the opportunity to discover the vibrant Nizwa Souq, a marketplace filled with a delightful array of handicrafts, including coffee pots, swords, leather goods, silverware, antiques, and household utensils.

We drop you off at your hotel for an overnight stay. Rest at leisure.

Day 04: Nizwa - Jebel Akhdar

Breakfast at the hotel, then drive to Birkat Al Mouz, meaning "banana pool." The town is a pleasant oasis at the foot of Jebel Akhdar.

Continue your journey to Jebel Akhdar, which is renowned for its lush greenery and considered one of Oman's most scenic regions. The friendly local inhabitants add to the charm of this natural tourist spot. With a moderate climate year-round due to an average altitude of about 1800 meters, this region is truly captivating. Also of interest is the lookout over the canyon recently named Diana's Point, for the late Princess of Wales, who spent time here in the late 80s.

You will be dropped off at your hotel. Rest at leisure.

Day 06: Wadi Bani Khalid – Ras Al Jinz

After breakfast, leave the camp and head towards Wadi Bani Khalid. Reach the magnificent Wadi, where you can enjoy a leisurely and refreshing time. The pools are cool, deep and absolutely stunning, surrounded by palm trees and vast, the water is perfect for a long swim.

Next, continue your journey to Ras Al Jinz, where we will drop you off at your hotel. Complete the check-in formalities and savor the sunset on a beautiful beach as you prepare for a great experience of turtle watching. This activity is a highlight of a trip to the Sultanate, offering one of the best nature experiences. Each year, thousands of sea turtles migrate from the shores of the Arabian Gulf and the Red Sea to lay their eggs on Oman's beaches. Protected reserves provide opportunities to witness these majestic creatures come ashore in the evening and return to the sea in the morning. Rest at leisure.

Dress Code During Tours

-Grand Mosque - Women should wear attire covering their arms and legs and should cover their head with a scarf. Men should wear a casual shirt and trousers.

-Swimming in Wadis – Wadis are a public tourist area and hence, they attract both tourists & locals equally. Keeping in mind the country's culture, all women are requested to wear clothes up to the knees. T-shirts & shorts are fine. However, bikinis only are not recommended.

-Trekking - Take as little as possible, as conditions are usually steep and hot. Boots are required and they should be lightweight but beware of the aggressive nature of the rocks. Trekking shoes and light-coloured clothes are advisable.

-During other tours – Smart casuals are suitable, especially if visiting local villages and meeting local people.
