Day 02: Tashkent-Samarkand

Breakfast at the hotel.

Transfer to Tashkent Railway Station for a train to Samarkand (based on schedule and availability).

Embark on an exciting excursion in Samarkand, starting with a visit to the Mausoleum of Guri Emir, the tomb of Tamerlane (14th-15th century), where Amir Temur, his sons, and grandsons are buried. Continue to Registan Square, one of the finest examples of urban planning in Central Asia, dating back to the 17th century. It features three remarkable madrasahs: Ulugbek (1417-1420), Sher-Dor (1619-1636), and Tilya-Kari (1647-1660), each showcasing the rich history of Samarkand.

Next, visit the Bibi Khanum Mosque, the largest in Central Asia and one of the grandest in the Muslim world. Its awe-inspiring architecture draws the gaze of all who enter the city.

The final stop is the Shahi-Zinda architectural complex (11th-15th century), a royal burial site. The main mausoleum houses the imaginary grave of Kusam Ibn Abbas, the cousin of the Prophet Muhammad, whose name "Shahi Zinda" means "Living King" in Persian. Night at the hotel.
