Overview

This trip will give you the opportunity to travel to some of the most visited areas in the country. You will be arriving in the Central Valley for a visit to the Poas Volcano National Park and also to learn about one of the most important crops in the country, in Doka Coffee

Plantation. A visit to La Paz Waterfall Gardens will give you a nice introduction to Costa Rica's flora and fauna, before arriving to the lush canals of Tortuguero National Park. Located in the heart of the country, you will visit the city of La Fortuna and the impressive Arenal volcano. Accompanied by a bilingual guide, walk over the rainforest in the Hanging Bridges and enjoy the most extraordinary views of the volcano. The next destination is Monteverde, to visit the renowned Cloud Forest Reserve, before heading North for a relaxing beach stay in Tamarindo, a lively beach town that combines high-end shopping, dining and lively nightlife with spectacular natural scenery.
