Highlights

Machu Picchu: Explore the iconic Inca citadel with a private guide, with two full days dedicated to this awe-inspiring site.

Sacred Valley Exploration: Visit the fortress of Ollanta Tambo, Maras salt mines, and the agricultural terraces of Moray.

Luxury Train Journey: Experience the opulence of the Hiram-Bingham train, offering breathtaking views and gourmet meals enroute to Machu Picchu.

Travel Tips

Make sure to carry a small backpack for Machu Picchu, as larger luggage is not allowed on the train.

The altitude in Cusco and the Sacred Valley can be challenging; acclimatize by staying hydrated and taking it easy during the first days.

Book dinner reservations in Lima to experience its world-renowned culinary scene.

Weather Preparedness

Lima: Expect mild weather, ranging between 60°F and 75°F (15°C to 24°C). Coastal fog is common.

Cusco and Sacred Valley: Cool mornings and evenings with temperatures ranging from 40°F to 68°F

(4°C to 20°C). Warm layers are recommended.

Machu Picchu: Milder, humid conditions with a chance of rain. Dress in layers and carry rain protection.

Fitness Requirements

Moderate fitness is required for walking tours in Cusco and Machu Picchu. Be prepared for uneven terrain and high altitudes.

The second day at Machu Picchu offers the opportunity to explore more of the site, so comfortable walking shoes are essential.
