Detailed Itinerary

Day 01: Arrive Quito

Welcome to Quito! The largest and best-preserved colonial city in the Americas, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1978. The city is considered the Cultural Capital of South America and is located on the equator in a valley at the foot of the Pichincha volcano.

Depending on your arrival time, you can spend the day exploring Quito's old town and its surroundings. We can help organize a day tour (request in advance). In the evening, one of our travel leaders will meet you in the hotel lobby for a welcome briefing at 6:00 PM. At this time, we will discuss details and any questions you may have about the adventure. Our first day is an acclimatization and information day.

Day 02: Trek to Cotopaxi National Park

Begin by hiking the Sierra climate around the Limpiopungo lagoon (13,000 ft / 3,800 m) on the foothills of the Rumiñahui volcano. From here, we have the best views of Cotopaxi, the highest active volcano in the world. There is also the possibility to see wild horses, wild bulls, and some bird species. Concluding our day, we will drive to Isinlivi where we will spend the night.

Trekking time: 2 hours on flat terrain around Limpiopungo lagoon.

Elevation: 12,631 ft

Elevation gain: 1,000 feet

Distance: 5 miles

Total steps: 15,345

Day 03: Trekking through the Toachi Canyon to Chugchilán

The charming Andean mountain landscapes will inspire us today on a trek along the Toachi canyon for 13.5 km (8.4 mi). Experience stunning views of small villages and indigenous people working in the fields. We will hike down to the canyon of the Toachi River and then back up to the main road that will take us to Chugchilán, a small town located in the middle of the Quilotoa loop. Here we will find our Eco-house accommodation, and in the afternoon, we can explore the village with the great opportunity to gain a bit of cultural experience with the locals.

Trekking time: 2 hours downhill from 10,810 ft (3,295 m) to the Toachi River at 9,500 ft (2,896 m), then 2 hours uphill to Chugchilán at 10,498 ft (3,200 m).

Total steps: 25,481

Day 04: Trekking to Quilotoa Lake

Early in the morning after breakfast we will start our hiking adventure for 11 km (6.9 miles) on small trails blazed by the mountain people and still used by locals to transport products and to travel across the canyons to reach neighboring communities. While trekking on this trail, it is common to see the traditional custom of exchanging goods with one another, bartering is still being utilized today. We will venture down into impressive canyons to later climb back up to the top of the crater rim, where you will be rewarded with spectacular views of the Quilotoa Lake. The majesty of this place will take your breath away.

Enjoy a beautiful picnic with the best views from the volcano and transfer 2.5 hours to lodge in a magical hacienda in the foothills of Chimborazo volcano.

Trekking time: 1 hour downhill from 10,498 ft to the Toachi River at 9,800 ft, then 2.5 hours uphill to 13,000 ft. After, 1.5 hours on flat terrain.

Total steps: 27,518

Day 06: Trek in the Llanganates National Park

Trek in Llanganates National Park for 6 hours, famous for its breathtaking landscapes and legendary mystery. According to folklore, the Inca General Rumiñahui is said to have hidden a vast treasure of gold somewhere in the Tungurahua mountain range.

The hike begins at 3,200 m (10,498 ft) above sea level and climbs to 3,600 m (12,024 ft), passing through diverse vegetation zones. On a clear day, you'll be rewarded with sweeping views of the Tungurahua and Sangay volcanoes.

After this magical trek, return to the vibrant town of Baños. You'll have the opportunity to unwind in a local spa with a relaxing massage or soak in the famous hot springs. In the evening, experience Baños' lively nightlife.

Day 07: Hike to the road of waterfalls and return to Quito

Baños is a vibrant town nestled at the foothills of the active Tungurahua volcano, renowned for its natural beauty and adventure activities such as horseback riding, canyoning, hiking, mountain biking, climbing, and rafting. A favorite getaway for many Ecuadorians, Baños offers lush mountain landscapes and a relaxed yet lively atmosphere.

In the morning, embark on the famous "Ruta de las Cascadas" (Waterfall Route). The first stop is the Bride's Veil waterfall, where you'll ride a Tarabita (cable car) across the Pastaza River. Then, enjoy a one-hour hike to the Pailón del Diablo waterfall — the second highest in Ecuador — where you'll experience the sheer power of nature.

After this adventure-filled day in the cloud forest, relax during the scenic return journey to Quito.

Trekking time: 45 minutes downhill from 5,249 ft to 4,950 ft, then 1 hour uphill. Total steps: 13,000.
