Day 02: Mexico City - Teotihuacán - Querétaro

After the breakfast, you will discover Teotihuacán. This is the most important archeological site in central Mexico, meaning "Place where the gods are born." It was one of the most important urban centers of ancient Mexico. Its imposing Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon, along with the majestic Avenue of the Dead and the Temple of Quetzalcoatl, reflect the architectural and spiritual grandeur of this civilization. Strolling through the archaeological site is a journey into the past that allows you to imagine life in one of the most influential cultures of Mesoamerica.

In the afternoon, we will travel to Querétaro, where upon the arrival, we will enjoy a city tour. Querétaro, an UNESCO World Heritage Site, lets us discover a colonial gem steeped in history and charm. We will discover its historic center, with beautiful plazas, colonial mansions, and baroque temples, while learning about the historic moments in Mexico's Independence. The imposing and famous Aqueduct is a symbol of the city, and frames a vibrant atmosphere where traditions, culture and modernity blend.
