Day 02: Tokyo

Breakfast at the hotel. Full day dedicated to visiting Tokyo with an English-speaking guide. We start with a splendid view of the megalopolis from the observatory of the Bunkyo Civic Centre. Then we will visit the Edo Fukagawa Museum where we find a life-size representation of daily life in the area at the time. Finally, we will take you to visit the characteristic Asakusa district, where the 7th-century Senso-ji Temple, the oldest in the city, and the long Nakamisedori boulevard with its traditional shops stand. Finally, a walk to the Ginza district where the visit ends.

Day 03: Tokyo

Breakfast at hotel, day free at leisure Or Optional guided tour of Tokyo - Not bookable on site - A "CROSSING" INTO THE PAST A whole day dedicated to visiting some of Tokyo's most historic districts. We will start by visiting the Tsukiji fish market, the outer market. Although a new location for the fish market has recently been created, the original location is still there, alive and full of excellent places selling and cooking excellent fresh fish. We will continue to explore the picturesque Yanaka district and in particular the folkloristic Yanaka Ginza street full of local restaurants, street food, and small shops and where you can breathe in a bygone era. Finally, transfer to the popular Shibuya district, famous for its impressive intersection with what is said to be the world's busiest pedestrian crossing. Meals not included.

Breakfast

Day 04: Tokyo - Kyoto

Luggage will be transported separately to Kyoto by courier (Luggage will arrive the next day, please remember to pack an overnight bag). It is recommended not to carry bulky luggage with you in order to be able to continue with the guided tour in the afternoon. Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, departure independently for Kyoto by shinkansen train using the Japan Rail Pass (2nd class), arriving at Kyoto Station in the early afternoon. Meeting with an English-speaking guide in the hotel lobby and departure for the city tour of Kyoto, Japan's ancient capital. The visit will touch on the Golden Pavilion of Kinkaku-ji, the city's iconic temple made famous by the novel by the writer Yukio Mishima, and will continue with the Ryoan-ji Temple, famous for its rock garden whose elements are arranged in such a way that they can never be seen all at once. On the way back, stroll through the ancient Gion district, known for its tea houses and the maiko, would-be geisha, who are occasionally seen wandering its alleys.
