Day 05: Salvador

Breakfast at hotel and departure for regular historical tour in Salvador.

Visit some of the most important points in the history of the city of Salvador, such as some of its first streets, squares and churches. Starting from the Farol da Barra to the Upper City through the Corredor da Victoria, Campo Grande and Piedade, then through the city center, passing through the apotheosis of the traditional Salvador Carnival circuit, until reaching the highlight of this itinerary, the Pelourinho, an important cultural pole of the city of Salvador, as well as one of the most important architectural complexes of the XVII and XVIII centuries still existing. Already from the viewpoint of the Lacerda Elevator, it is possible to appreciate the Upper City, the Lower City and the diversity of angles offered by the variety of planes that the streets and houses of the Pelourinho offer. From each place you have a different and amazing aesthetic vision. It is also worth mentioning the beauty of the churches, such as São Francisco de Assis, Cathedral Basilica and Nossa Senhora do Rosário dos Pretos. The tour ends at Largo do Pelourinho, with the possibility of visiting the Jorge Amado House Foundation. Return to the hotel.

- Includes: Ticket and transportation by van.

Breakfast

Day 06: Salvador

Breakfast at hotel and departure for regular tour to Praia do Forte and Guarajuba Beach.

Departure from Salvador for a tour to the north coast of Bahia, where some of the most beautiful and charming beaches in Brazil are located. First you will pass by Guarajuba beach, where there is a stop to appreciate the scenery and tranquility of the place. Then you will continue to the famous town of Praia do Forte, which stands out for the warmth of its people, the restaurants and beautiful stores, its regional fruit ice creams and the varied handicrafts, which make the excursion very profitable and unforgettable. At Praia do Forte beach, we recommend a visit to the National Headquarters of the Tamar Project, which since the 80's, works to preserve and increase the population of various species of turtles in danger of extinction or simply walk along the sand appreciating the beauty and harmony of nature. Return to Salvador. Tour without lunch.
