Local Tip - When staying at Aurora Safari Camp, take advantage of the complete silence that surrounds you—something locals call tystnaden. Head out just after dinner, away from the camp lights, and sit quietly in the snow or on the dock in summer. It's one of the best ways to spot the Northern Lights in winter—or enjoy the golden glow of the midnight sun in summer. Locals swear it's also the perfect moment to reconnect with nature (and yourself). Bring a thermos of warm lingonberry juice—it's a Nordic classic.
