Day 04

Day 04: In El Calafate

Full Day, Todo Glaciares Boat Trip including Shared Transfers. This boat trip exploring the north branch of Lake Argentino leaves from the port of Punta Bandera, some 47 km west of El Calafate. The itinerary crosses the Boca del Diablo to the Upsala Canal and the boat then navigates between large icebergs that emerge from the front of the Upsala Glacier. After entering the Spegazzini Channel the first view of the Glacier Seco appears, before continuing until the front of the Spegazzini Glacier, where the Heim Sur and Peineta glaciers can also be seen. There is then a chance to disembark at the Spegazzini Base. A short walk along a forest path leads to the Spegazzini Refuge. It is an easy stroll on a 300-meter path on firm ground, with viewpoints overlooking the entire Bay of Los Glaciers. At the refuge lunch can be bought (or bring your own), you can also visit the shop or simply contemplate the amazing landscape from the deck. For those who like to walk a bit more, they can take the longer mountain path back, a trek of medium difficulty along a wooded path with incredible views. This path ends back at the landing point, the Spegazzini Base, and is around 700 metres long. You will be collected from the hotel and dropped off after the tour. Captain Club: Additional supplement included.

Day 06: In Puerto Iguazu

Your National Park entrance ticket is included. Full Day Private Iguazu Falls Tour. Iguazu Falls, the largest waterfalls system in the world, are truly awe-inspiring to behold, spanning the border between Brazil and Argentina. Though Brazil boasts better views of the falls, Argentina is blessed with about 80 percent of this natural marvel's 275 separate cascades. Paved trails and catwalks wind their way around the falls—sometimes reaching within an arm's length of the water—and a free train connects the main trailheads. We like to start the tour early in order to try and beat the crowds and get the first train to the Devil's Throat. There are walkways over the islands which take you to a balcony over the falls and the most spectacular view of the entire Devil's Gorge. You will then have plenty of time to walk the 800 metres of paths on the upper circuit. These new suspended walkways are detached from the jungle surface so as to protect the fauna by preventing disruption of the natural trails. From this circuit you have a higher sight of the falls, providing you with a magnificent panoramic view. It takes around 1 hour to cover the upper circuit. The lower circuit contains 600 metres of walkways, also detached from the jungle floor, and has great views from below and around the falls. If you have booked - or would like to book locally - the boat trip under the falls, the guide will take you to the boarding point. Once you have finished all the circuits, you go back to the visitor centre where the vehicle will be waiting for you.

Day 07: In Puerto Iguazu

The entrance fee for Iguazu Brazilian National Park is included. Half Day Private Tour to the Brazilian side of the Falls. This half day tour explores the Brazilian side of the Falls. Iguazu Falls (Cataratas do Iguazu), the largest waterfalls system in the world, are truly awe-inspiring to behold. Though

Argentina boasts longer trails around the falls, Brazil is blessed with the best views of this natural marvel's 275 separate cascades, which span the border between the two countries. Take in full-frontal views of Devil's Throat (Garganta del Diablo), San Martin Island, and more from the short-but-sweet catwalks that wind their way around the Brazilian side of Iguazu Falls. Though less forested and natural than the Argentinean trails, you'll find significantly better panoramic views of Iguazu Falls in all its unforgettable glory—and they even offer an elevator to a postcard-perfect viewpoint over Devil's Throat, considered the most spectacular scene in the park. If coming from Argentina, please don't forget your passport to cross the border.
