Trip Highlights

Stuttgart - Heidelberg - Stuttgart

Detailed Itinerary

Day 01

Day 01: Arrive Stuttgart

Upon arrival in Stuttgart optional private transfer to your hotel.

Day 02

Day 02: Stuttgart - Heidelberg - Stuttgart

Take advantage of the time and discover the city and its Christmas market at your own pace. 300 bright and lovingly decorated stalls, the smell of punch and fresh pastries: All this makes Stuttgart's Christmas market one of the most beautiful and largest markets in Europe. Then travel by train to Heidelberg, a beautiful city with great medieval influence in its buildings. In its Christmas Market there are around 140 stalls, which sell lovely gift ideas. If you are looking for a sports activity or want to do a few laps on ice skates in front of the castle's romantic setting, you can go to Karlsplatz. One of the most beautiful ice rinks in Germany. In the afternoon return to Stuttgart by train.

Day 03

Day 03: Stuttgart - Baden-Baden - Stuttgart

In the morning train trip to Baden-Baden. This spa town features delightful gardens, large villas and important cultural attractions. Discover Roman ruins and visit Friedrichsbad, one of the oldest thermal spas. Admire the architecture of the famous Casino, one of the most elegant casinos in Europe. Visit the old train station, which has been transformed into a theatre and hosts numerous festivals. Surrounded by the mountains of the Black Forest, the traditional Christkindelsmarkt Baden-Baden with its many attractions will catch you in a very special winter fairy tale. The aroma of mulled wine and gingerbread will guide you on your walk through more than 100 carefully decorated stalls at the beginning of the famous Lichtentaler Allee Park. In the afternoon return to Stuttgart by train.

Day 04

Day 04: Depart Stuttgart

If there is enough time, you can optionally visit the Christmas market in Esslingen, renowned for offering a very special medieval atmosphere. Optional private transfer to the airport.
