Day 13Day 13: Majestic Fjord Expedition

Our journey commences at Dynjandi waterfall, hailed as one of Iceland's most breathtaking natural wonders. With its tiered structure, Dynjandi creates a mesmerizing cascade of smaller falls. Continuing along the coastline and fjords, we arrive at the picturesque pier of Öundurarfjörður. Extending gracefully from a golden beach into the water, this pier offers panoramic vistas of the fjord. Our exploration leads us to Flateyri village, where we pause at the hidden gem, Gamla bókabúðin or "The Old Bookstore". Operating since 1914, this quaint store is a treasure trove of unique souvenirs and showcases traditional Icelandic design. Delving into Flateyri's history, we learn about the 1995 avalanche and visit the protective fences erected to safeguard locals. In the afternoon, we reach Ísafjörður, the largest town in the Westfjords, our base for the next two nights.

Hotel: Hótel Ísafjörður or similar.

Meal: Breakfast

Day 14

Day 14: Ísafjörður, Seaside Escapade

This morning, we embark on an adventure to Bolafjall, a towering mountain reaching 640 meters high. Here, a steel viewing platform offers a breathtaking perspective over the sea and nearby fjords, sure to exhilarate even the most daring. Visit the restored fishing hut at Ósvör Maritime Museum, where you'll delve into the history of rowboat fishing and the rugged life in isolated fishing villages during the 19th century. Later, we journey to Suðureyri village for a leisurely stroll and indulge in delectable seafood sourced from local producers, immersing ourselves in Iceland's rich maritime heritage.

In the afternoon, enjoy leisure time in Ísafjörður or opt for an exciting add-on activity. Choose from a thrilling ATV tour around Ísafjörður or embark on a visit to the enchanting island of Vigur, renowned for its abundant wildlife including puffins, Arctic terns, eiders, guillemots, and more.
